Welcome to Our Visitors

Thank you for sharing in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass with us today. Please fill out a visitor's card (found in the pew racks) and return it in the offering plate so we will have a record of your visit. And please introduce yourself after Mass.

If you are a Catholic, we at Our Lady of Walsingham receive Holy Communion kneeling and by intinction (both species on the tongue).

If you are not a Catholic, during Communion we invite you either to come forward with your arms crossed over your chest, or fingers across your lips, and receive a blessing from the Priest or Deacon, or remain in your pew and reflect on the presence of Christ.

You are invited to attend the conclusion of Chorus Angelorum's Tenth Choral Workshop with an Organ Recital presented Friday, June 15, 6:30 pm by Dr. Crista Miller
and Solemn Choral Evensong and Concert with Chorus Angelorum
Saturday, June 16, 6:30 pm

First Saturday of Each Month Reparation to the Immaculate Heart of Mary, June 29 a.m. -10:30 a.m. Church - Our Lady at Fatima requested that we make reparation for the sins of the world: confess our sins, receive holy communion, pray the rosary and meditate 15 minutes on a rosary mystery in reparation for sins for 5 consecutive First Saturdays and perpetually if possible. Appearing with the Queen of Heaven December 10, 1925 to Sr. Lucia (Fatima seer) was the Infant Jesus, Who said to Lucia: “Have pity on the Heart of your Most Holy Mother. It is covered with thorns with which ungrateful men pierce it at every moment, and there is no one to remove them with an act of reparation.” Our Lady Promises all the Graces Necessary for Heaven if a Catholic Finishes the Five First Saturdays Devotion. “Whether the world has war or peace depends on the practice of this devotion, along with the consecration to the Immaculate Heart of Mary. This is why I desire its propagation so ardently, especially because this is also the will of our dear Mother in Heaven.” -Sr. Lucy (March 19, 1939)

The Collect for Purity

One of the glories of the Anglican tradition, now restored to the Catholic Church and preserved in Divine Worship: The Missal, consists in those prayers called collects, so named because they gather together or “collect” the focused petitions appointed for the Sundays and holy days of the liturgical year. The collects of the Anglican Prayer Book are, for the most part, superb English translations of the ancient Roman orations that come down to us from the Sacramentaries of three early popes: Leo I (440-461), Gelasius (492-496), and Gregory the Great (590-604). First adapted in the sixteenth-century by Thomas Cranmer, the limpid rolling periods of these English collects manage to capture much of the concision, stylistic richness, emotional range, and theological nuance of the Latin originals.

A fine example is the prayer that opens Holy Mass celebrated according to the Ordinariate use of the Roman Rite, the so-called Collect for Purity:

(1) ALMIGHTY God, (2) unto whom all hearts be open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hid: (3) cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of thy Holy Spirit, (4) that we may perfectly love thee, and worthily magnify thy holy Name; (5) through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Characteristic of the form and style of the ancient Latin collects, this prayer is structured thus: (1) the address, typically, with but a few exceptions, an invocation of God the Father; (2) the acknowledgment, designating the point of doctrine or quality of God relevant to the request being made; (3) the petition, asking God's special mercies and graces for the faithful, (4) the aspiration, often eschatological in character, specifying the end for which we make our petition; and (5) the pleading, whereby we offer the prayer through Jesus Christ, our Mediator and Advocate by Whom we approach the Father in the Holy Spirit.

Taken from the Sarum Missal, the Collect for Purity was originally a vesting prayer said by the priest and his servers before Mass. But in the Anglican Eucharist it takes the place of the Prayers at the Foot of the Altar in the traditional Roman Rite and serves as a preparatory invocation offered to God by the celebrant on behalf of the people in solemn supplication of the grace of the Holy Ghost necessary to participate in the Holy Sacrifice.
