Dear Sacred Heart Family,

Next Saturday, June 25, eight young men will be ordained as priests of Jesus Christ in the Archdiocese of Washington. Today, June 19, is my own anniversary of priestly ordination. Six years ago, I was forever changed as these young men will be. Just like at weddings, those to be ordained priests are asked to say “I do” but the promises are different. Below are the promises every priest makes on his ordination day.

- Are you resolved, with the help of the Holy Spirit, to discharge without fail the office of priesthood in the presbyteral order as a conscientious fellow worker with the bishops in caring for the Lord's flock?
- Are you resolved to celebrate the mysteries of Christ faithfully and religiously as the Church has handed them down to us for the glory of God and the sanctification of Christ's people?
- Are you resolved to hold the mystery of the faith with a clear conscience as the Apostle urges, and to proclaim this faith in word and action as it is taught by the Gospel and the Church's tradition?
- Are you resolved to maintain and deepen a spirit of prayer appropriate to your way of life and, in keeping with what is required of you, to celebrate faithfully the liturgy of the hours for the Church and for the whole world?
- Are you resolved to exercise the ministry of the word worthily and wisely, preaching the gospel and explaining the Catholic faith?
- Are you resolved to consecrate your life to God for the salvation of his people, and to unite yourself more closely every day to Christ the High Priest, who offered himself for us to the Father as a perfect sacrifice?
- Do you promise respect and obedience to me [the bishop] and my successors?

Please pray that the eight men to be ordained may be ready to make these promises, and pray for me and all priests that through the grace of God, we can remain faithful to them.

May God bless you,
Fr. Anthony Lickteig
