Dear Sacred Heart Family,

Next Sunday, Cardinal Wuerl will install me as pastor of Sacred Heart Parish at a special Mass time of 9:00am. As I reflect on this awesome day, I cannot help but be grateful for the gift of being a spiritual father for others. Every man deeply desires to be a father, and I dare to say that every woman deeply desires to be a mother. Yet fatherhood (or motherhood) is not something that we can give ourselves. It is meant to be a gift. But this gift has its beginning in a love for another. In other words, before we can be fathers or mothers, we are called to be spouses – husbands and wives. Because only when I have made my life a gift for another will new life arise as God intended. But even before I can give my life away, I have to receive my life from another. So even before we can be husbands and wives, we are sons and daughters. All this is pretty simple.

But the spiritual life is no different.

May God bless you,
Fr. Anthony Lickteig
