Dear Parishioners,

I am looking forward to experiencing for the first time next week's Annual Fall Dinner. At my previous parishes, I had always heard about this dinner. So, the word travels around the diocese and beyond about this dinner. I look forward to helping out with making the stuffed ham (and then eating it, of course)!

I know we are in need of a lot of volunteers to help make this dinner a success. Please consider volunteering in some capacity. Throughout the week, if you come to the parish hall, there would be plenty for you to do. Whether you help out for 1 hour or 10 hours or more, any help would be greatly appreciated. Please contact the parish office or Sarah Jean Pingleton to find out more.

Lastly, I am starting RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults) on Monday. RCIA is for those who are interested in becoming Catholic or for those who are Catholic, but maybe never received their First Communion and/or were never confirmed. Classes will be held at the rectory at Holy Angels at 6:30pm. If you or someone you know might be interested, please contact me or just show up on Monday. Classes will be held most Mondays until Easter.

God Bless,
Fr. Sam Plummer
