Dear Parishioners,

Greetings from Honduras! Everything is going well down here. I am living at the rectory at the Basilica of Our Lady of Suyapa in Tegucigalpa. It is a beautiful church and pilgrims from all over Central America travel to visit this holy site. The people have been very friendly and welcoming to me. My Spanish classes run for 3 hours in the morning and we come back a few hours later for a 1 hour class. I have been celebrating Mass every day in Spanish and even preached a few times, but with a script in front of me. I struggle with having even basic conversations and find myself saying "si" every time someone says something to me.

Anyway, I look forward to returning for next weekend's Masses. I miss all of you and I am praying for you every day.

God Bless,
Fr. Sam Plummer
