From the Pastor's Desk

Part of the gospel this fourth Sunday of Lent is the discourse of Jesus addressed to the Pharisees. He said, "I came into this world for judgment so that those who do not see may see, and those who do see may become blind." Some of the Pharisees near him heard this and said to him, "Surely we are not blind, are we?" Jesus said to them, "If you were blind, you would not have sin. But now that you say, 'We see,' your sin remains." (John 9:39-41)

Jesus made these remarks in order to help us understand blindness. There are people who are physically blind not of their own fault, but there can also be people who are not physically blind, yet they are spiritually blind because of their inability to identify their sins and shortcomings. They think as long as they don't do anything wrong to others, they are okay. True! But they failed to see the needs of others and that is the sin of omission. When we don't open our hearts and not recognize the needs of others around us, especially if we have the means to help them become better, we become spiritually blind.

In last week's gospel, we heard about the encounter of the Samaritan woman with Jesus, and this Sunday we have the encounter of Jesus with the blind man. Pharisees did not mind them at all because first, they think the Samaritans should be avoided because they are impure. Second, with the blind man, they think they could not do anything. But Jesus gives us the impression that yes, you can do something. Your love, your care and attention will make a difference towards them.

True piety means not only being self-absorbed with whatever we do, but also being sensitive to people around us in their needs. Failure to recognize them, we commit the sin of omission that leads us to be spiritually blind.

So, this week in the spirit of Lent, let our prayer be "Lord, help me to see not only my needs but also others' needs. Give me the light and spiritual insight."

This week we also begin our Lenten Penance Service in our region in which we are given an opportunity to receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation and be sorry for our sins we committed, either the sins of commission or the sins of omissions. This helps us to prepare for the coming Holy Week and Easter spiritually filled with grace.

Watch individually, as a family, or in small groups and use the Leader's Guide for discussion.

FORGIVEN™
THE TRANSFORMING POWER OF CONFESSION

Forgiven explores the grace and healing offered in Confession and shows how this sacrament of mercy reveals the depth and bounty of God's love. By looking at God's revelation of his mercy in Scripture and making a step-by-step examination of the Rite itself, Forgiven communicates God's invitation to each of us to come experience his indescribable love in the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

Week 4 Symbolon Session 6: The Paschal Mystery

"The Paschal Mystery" is a phrase we hear and use in the Mass and sacramental rites, but do we understand what it means in the greater story of Salvation, from the Passover in Egypt to the Last Supper and Crucifixion of Jesus?
