LIVING OUR FAITH

From the Desk of Fr. Thomas Pastorius,

1. Spiritual Gifts Workshop is the Next Big Step In Epiphany's Parish

I would like to invite all Epiphany Parishioners to sign up for the Spiritual Gifts Workshop that will be taking place on Tuesday February 23rd and March 1st. Morning Session will be from 10 AM to 12 Noon and the evening session from 7-9 PM. These sessions will help us understand what our gifts are and how we can use them to build up God's kingdom. Please R.S.V.P by calling the rectory A.S.A.P. On a scale of 1 to 10 with 10 being very important this is a 9.

2. Faith and Family Programming For Tuesday February 16, 2016

Blue Knights, Little Flowers, Pillars of the Faith, & Chosen all meet at 6:30 PM.

3. Liturgical Meeting

Thank you to everyone who took the time to come and listen to Dr. Rosenberg speak about the importance of being a liturgical minister. I am deeply grateful for all who take ministering at the Lord's altar so seriously.

4. Everyone Needs to Forgive Somebody Classes

I hope everyone has enjoyed the book "Everyone Needs to Forgive Someone" by Alan Hunt that we passed out at Christmas. Please mark your calendar now to attend a series of group discussions based on the book. Evening Sessions will be Tuesday Nights from 8-9PM (Tuesday February 16 to Tuesday March 22) and Morning Session will be Wednesday Mornings 9-10 AM (Wednesday February 17 to Wednesday March 23). If you wish to participate please read chapter 1&2 before the first class. All classes will take place in the rectory.

5. Glory Stories

We are looking for people to share what they love about Epiphany on our parish website. Please consider answering the following four questions: 1) Who are you? 2) How long have you been a member of Epiphany? 3) What do you like about Epiphany? 4) Where have you seen God at Epiphany? Please then call the rectory and sign up for a ½ slot between 10 AM and 3 PM on February 20th. Please prayerfully consider sharing your love for the parish with others in this special way.

6. Fish Fry Season

Why did the vegan go deep-sea fishing? Just for the halibut! Our parish fish fries are way better than my bad fish jokes. Our next Fish Fry will be February 19th from 4:30-7 PM.

7. Beyond Sunday Capital Campaign

I just wanted to add another word of gratitude to all who participated in the Archdiocesan Capital Campaign for Catholic Education. If anytime over the next year you would like to make a donation to the campaign please let me know. Thank you and God bless

God bless,
Fr. Tom

Black and Indian Mission Collection Today, our parish will take up the 131st Annual National Black and Indian Mission Collection. Our support of this collection helps build the Church in African American, Native American, and Alaska Native communities from coast to coast. Schools, parish religious education programs, and diocesan ministries depend on your generosity to help them spread the Gospel of Jesus Christ! You can help meet unmet needs with a generous contribution today. Thank you for your support!

EASTER EGG HUNT - CANDY AND TOYS NEEDED It is that time of year again, and we are asking for donations of candy (we already have plenty of eggs). We would also like to offer some toy prizes if anyone would like to donate small toys, coloring books, bubbles, or the like. (No stuffed animals please.) If you would like to help, just drop off the goods at the Epiphany Parish Rectory between now and March 20. Thanks for all the help!

First Sunday of Lent Lectionary: 24 Gospel Lk 4:1-13

Scripture Reflection: A priest that I met while studying for a certificate in Spiritual Direction is fond of saying that the devil only has two lies. The first lie is that "you are not good enough," and the second lie is that "you are alone." All temptations boil down to these two lies. God though has promised that we can do all things with Him and that He is Emmanuel "God with us." Thus making the devil the "father of lies."

Reflection Questions:

1. What temptation of the devil in the Scripture would you have given into the easiest?
2. What temptation of the devil would have been the easiest to resist?
3. Which one of the two lies do you give into the most?
4. Why was it important for Jesus to be tempted?
5. Why was it important for Jesus to do things Father's way?

I always start off reading books about marriage in order to improve my marriage preparation programs and marital counseling skills but I always learn so much about relationships in general. This was, once again, true as I read Dr. Allen Hunt's book: The 21 Undeniable Secrets of Marriage. Quotes from his book will be in bold and my commentary will be in regular font.

04. The Secret of Bedrock: for a marriage to work it is important to share everything, including the deepest values in your heart.

“What is the secret of bedrock? Prayer. Prayer that leads to a spiritual life together as a couple. A spiritual life together then will give you the same values and convictions in your heart so that the two of you are driving your relationship in the same direction at the same time in all settings. A deep melding will bind you together as a couple, and that bond will sustain you in ways you can never anticipate at the beginning. You shared spiritual life will serve as the mortar between the bricks of your home, pulling all the various parts together and holding them together as a unified whole.

The following is the Prayer Process that Dynamic Catholics suggests:

- 1). Gratitude: Begin by thanking God in a personal dialogue for whatever you are most grateful for today.
- 2). Awareness: Revisit the times in the past twenty-four hours when you were and were not the best-version-of-yourself. Talk to God about these situations and ask him to give you the gift of greater awareness when similar situations arise in the future.
- 3). Significant Moments: Identify something that you experienced today and explore what God might be trying to say to you through that event.
- 4). Peace: Ask God to forgive you for any wrong you have committed (against yourself, another person, or Him) and to fill you with a deep and abiding peace.
- 5). Freedom: Talk to God about how He is inviting you to change your life so that you can experience the freedom that comes from knowing that who you are, where you are, and what you are doing make sense. Is He inviting you to rethink the ways you do things? Is God asking you to let go of something or someone? Is He asking you to hold on to something or someone?
- 6). Pray For Others: Pray for those who you feel called to pray for today, and those who have asked you to pray for them recently. Take a moment and pray for these people by name, asking God to bless and guide them.
- 7). Finish by praying the Our Father.

I can only imagine how strong a relationship would become if people felt free to pray the previous method out loud knowing that the person with them was going to respect and treasure the experience of watching the other pray.

Couple Prayer Method

The best method I have found for praying with your spouse is as follows. Step 1: Husband prays “Dear God I thank you for my wife (insert name) because (name two or three qualities that you appreciate). Help me become a better husband by (name two or three things/areas of your life that you need to improve). Step 2: Wife prays “Dear God I thank you for my husband (insert name) because (name two or three qualities that you appreciate). Help be become a better wife by (name two or three things/areas of your life that you need to improve). Step 3 (Optional) Thank God for each child making sure to give a reason why you are grateful. Step 4: end by praying the Our Father together. Praying this way helps spouses know that they are loved and appreciated and that their spouse is still striving to be a better person.

05. Marriage is a garden, not a fruit stand. You have to tend it.

They (marital researchers) look for a 5:1 ratio of positive to negative interactions. A 5:1 ratio as the couple relates to one another. Positive interactions include simple things such as a smile, a touch on the arm, looking directly into your partner's eyes, paying attention to what he or she says, saying thank you, sharing a quick hug or a giggle. Negative interactions include rolling the eyes, turning a cold shoulder, a dismissive harrumph, a mocking chuckle, or failing to listen to or acknowledge what your spouse is saying.

It is easy to create negative situations. Positive situations are much harder to create. It requires thought to be thoughtfulness.
