LIVING OUR FAITH

FROM THE DESK OF FR. THOMAS PASTORIUS

1. Faith and Family Programs:

Our Faith and Family programming for March 14th which is a 2nd TUESDAY of the month: 6:30 Men's Prayer Group & Women's Prayer Group.

2. Weekly Shout Out:

This week's shout out goes to Mark Palardy who gets up extra early on the Third Sunday of the month to make sure we have donuts for donut Sunday. Thank you Mark for helping the parish build community by enjoying some tasty pastries. Please take the time to nominate someone for our weekly shout out by emailing Fr. Pastorius at fathertompastorius@gmail.com or by calling the rectory and letting us know who you would like to give a shout out to and why.

3. Stations of the Cross.

Over the last few weeks, we have had someone talk to us about the devotion of the Stations of the Cross. I would like to encourage everyone to add this devotion to your Lenten practices.

4. Fish Fries

A piece of wisdom to ponder this week as our parish does not have a fish fry this week because of St. Patrick's day. "Give a man a fish and he'll eat for a day. Tell a man one of your long, pointless fishing stories, and he'll never bother you again." Our next Fish Fry will be March 24th 4:30 PM-7 PM.

5. Special Lenten Holy Hour

Thank you to everyone who has been attending our special Holy Hour each Sunday of Lent. Many of the priests have expressed great enthusiasm at being able to return to Epiphany and see all of you.

God bless,
Fr. Tom

State Issue: The Missouri General Assembly is considering a large number of bills that can have a significant positive effect on the Pro-Life disposition of Missouri's laws. These include:

House Bill HB 174: This State Bill could pre-empt the city's "Abortion Sanctuary" bill BB203. It would acknowledge the rights of alternatives-to-abortion agencies, such as pregnancy resource centers and maternity homes, to freely assemble and engage in religious practices or speech without government interference.

HB 655: Reauthorizes tax credits for contributions to maternity homes and pregnancy resource centers

HB326: Requires written informed consent of minor and one parent/guardian prior to abortion.

Senate Bill SB 67: Modifies the law regarding fetal tissue donation, fetal tissue reports, and abortion facility inspections.

Stay up to date on the status of these bills by signing up for email alerts from the Missouri Catholic Conference at mocatholic.org.

Contact your state representative in favor of these bills: www.house.mo.gov. Support Alternatives to Abortion: www.strespectlife.org

Missouri Right To Life Show Me Life, Pro Life Action Day in Jefferson City - Tuesday, March 14th. Support legislation to save the lives of unborn children. Join pro-lifers from across Missouri in Jefferson City at the State Capitol. Registration begins at 10:00 am in the 1st floor rotunda with the noon rally featuring Melissa Ohden, abortion survivor. LIVING OUR FAITH

Spiritual Ponderings

7 Last Words of Christ

According to St. Augustine the Cross can be described as “The death of the Lord our God should not be a cause of shame for us; rather, it should be our greatest hope, our greatest glory. In taking upon himself the death that he found in us, he has most faithfully promised to give us life in him, such as we cannot have of ourselves.” Therefore, as we continue to dive deeper into the lessons that the Cross is trying to teach us let us ask God for the gift of wisdom.

3. When Jesus saw his mother and the disciple there whom he loved, he said to his mother, “Woman, behold, your son.” Then he said to the disciple, “Behold, your mother.” And from that hour the disciple took her into his home.” John 19:26-27.

One of my favorite spiritual heroes is Cardinal Francis Xavier Nguyen Van Thuan. He was a Vietnamese bishop during the Vietnam War. As part of the North’s victory, Cardinal Van Thuan was arrested and placed in a concentration camp where the communists tortured him in some of the most inhumane ways possible. Eventually the communists grew frustrated with him and placed him under house arrest in North Vietnam. During this time the Vatican and the rest of the world assumed that he was dead. While under house arrest, he wrote a book called The Road of Hope: a Gospel from Prison. The book, which was written on the back of old calendars, contained spiritual statements that were meant to strengthen the people of Vietnam. Eventually the Vatican negotiated his release and he was exiled from Vietnam. Pope John Paul II made him the head of the Peace and Justice office in the Vatican and invited the Cardinal to preach the Lenten retreat in the year 2000.

Cardinal Thuan wrote this about the gift of Mary: “‘Here is your Mother’ (Jn 19:27). After the institution of the Blessed Eucharist, the Lord could not have left us anything greater than Mary. She has crushed the head of the serpent. She will help you to conquer the devil, “the flesh” and “the world.” She will obtain for you the graces to hold firm to the noble ideal which the Lord has placed in your heart.”

Sometimes, the greatest part of suffering is not the pain one feels but seeing others suffer because of our suffering. I can only imagine how Jesus felt, hanging there on the cross seeing his mother suffer. In a way though it was her love and support that helped Him stay the path that the Father had laid out before Him. When we are sick or ill, we must be willing to allow people to help and support us. We should not hold onto stubborn pride.

4. And about three o’clock Jesus cried out in a loud voice, “Eli, Eli, lema sabachthani?” which means, “My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?” Mathew 27:46

When we first hear this passage, we can think of it as a prayer of despair but Jesus is actually reciting Psalm 22. The psalm can be summarized in three parts. It starts off listing all the miseries the psalm writer is going through. The second part is where the author promises to remain faithful to God and finally the person declares his trust in God and knows that God will bring out good from the situation. Far from being a rejection of God this is a moment of recommitting himself to the Father. During our time of suffering, do we take the time to recommit ourselves to the Lord. One way in which the psalmist does it is by reminding himself of God’s faithfulness in the past. When you feel abandoned do you take the time to think about all the things God has done for us in the past?

Here is one last quote from Cardinal Thuan: “You suffer most when you suffer at the hands of those who should understand and sympathize with you, indeed those who have the obligation to defend you. Unite yourself with Jesus who hung on the cross and cried: “My God, my God, why have You forsaken me?” (Mt 27:46).”

SECOND SUNDAY OF LENT

LECTIONARY:25

GOSPEL MT 17:1-9

Spiritual Reflection: In today’s Gospel Jesus shows Peter, James, and John his glory. It is a reminder to us just how much Jesus had given up to save us. One of the reasons why the Paschal Mystery means so much is because it shows us just how much Jesus sacrificed for our sake. It is more of a miracle when a king steps down from his throne to have lunch with an ordinary person than when that person’s best friend would have lunch with him.

Spiritual Questions:

1. Why was it necessary for Peter, James, and John to witness the Transfiguration?
2. Why was it not necessary for all the Apostles to witness the Transfiguration?
3. Why did God think it was necessary for you to hear today’s Gospel?
4. How do you think Peter, James, and John were changed by what they saw and heard?
5. How are you going to change your life now?

ATTENTION WOMEN OF EPIPHANY: Please join us this 2nd Tues of March (3-14-17) for our Faith Gathering from 6:30-8 pm in the Rectory. We have shifted from the Word Among Us Daily Meditation books to the Yellow Book by Matthew Kelly, “Resisting Happiness” found at the church entrances since Christmas. We will be discussing the first 66 pages, Chapters 1-13. Hope you are enjoying the book and will join in on our discussion. We will split the remaining 24 chapters of the book between our April 11 and May 9 sharing sessions so we can finish the book before the Summer break. If you should have any questions, please contact Mary Jo Martin at 314-324-7224. Looking forward to seeing you at this Tues, March 14 Sharing session.

Stray Rescue Although heroic efforts are taking place in Louisiana, many animals have to be left behind because there isn't room for them all--which is a death sentence for a large number of them. This is the plea put out by Stray Rescue:

"If you were curious as to why Stray Rescue went to Louisiana...this is it. Flooding and tornadoes have caused people to flee their homes and leave their pets behind. Dogs were left behind in crates on the side of the road to rot. Horses were tied to trees and drowned in the floodwaters. Old wounds were left untreated and became massive infections...leaving animals of all shapes and sizes weak, emaciated, and suffering...alone.

Overcrowding at the St. Landry Parish has caused them to set up temporary housing and dogs are in kennels all over the property. Our rescue team is already emotionally and physically exhausted.

This is where you come in...if you can PLEASE open up your home to a dog even if it's just for a few weeks that would help us immensely. Please contact us if you can help. The dogs need you.
