MAY NEWSLETTER ~ ST. GREGORY CHURCH AND SCHOOL

I hope this newsletter finds you in good health and peace.

May is traditionally the month of Mary whom, we honor as the mother of Jesus and know she can lead us to her Son Jesus. She was the first disciple and her words to the angel Gabriel, “I am the servant of the Lord, be it done to me according to your word,” (Luke, 1:38), inspires us to imitate her example. The yes Mary said came from her heart, it was not a casual answer but, came deep from within her soul. No one told her to say yes; her parents, relatives, or friends, it came from deep within her, responding out of love regardless of the difficulties she knew would come her way. Let us pray that when God calls us, we will respond from our hearts just as Mary did. May Mary show us her way and may we have the courage to respond as she did. When you hear church bells ringing the Angelus at 6:00 am, 12:00 noon and at 6:00 pm, think of Mary’s YES to our Lord.

I am very grateful to you for your financial support of our church. With a campus of our size, there is always something that needs to be repaired or upgraded. This time last year we were going through some tough times. The main sewer line in the church was broken by a tree root, the big oak tree in front of the church was splitting in two, the water fountain in the church was no longer working properly, a supply water line in the boy’s rest room burst flooding the rest rooms, gathering area of the church, and ushers room, and recent rains exposed water leaking into in the chapel and church. All these things gave me a lot of headaches but thanks to your contributions to the second collection for the Church Renovation Fund (sometimes called the Building Fund), we had the money needed to take care of these problems. So far this year your contributions to this fund have enabled us to restore lighting to the Beryl Street parking lot as well as to the front of the church and its sides. After this, we completed some much needed church exterior painting; two large mechanical room vents, their surrounding metal frames, an electrical box, and the roof access ladder were painted, the metal handrails along the back and sides of the church, including those at the Parish Hall, 14 steel window lintels, 4 concrete awnings, and 14 cast iron underfloor vents. The exterior of the two rear rectory doors and the rear church door were also done. At the time of the writing, I am waiting on a third bid on work I want to do at Mary’s House (Senior Center). This bid will cover the cost of replacing the roof on Mary’s House with new dimensional shingles, replace the flat area with hot mopped modified bitumen, and install additional protective flashings. Painting of the fascia boards and exterior siding is also included. The Finance Council will look over these bids and decide on which company we will hire.

Hopefully when you read this newsletter, the job will be done or almost done. I am very careful how I spend the church’s money but even with these frugal ways, we could not have done these things without your help. Your donations are what made these necessary repairs possible. May God bless all of you for your support. Now, I humbly ask you to continue your financial support for the first collection. The money from this account goes into the General Account Fund and pays for our normal monthly expenses.

Our school continues to be a source of pride for me. On April 6th, the school sponsored a STEM show case. STEM stands for Science, Technology, Engineering, and Math. Even though it rained in the morning, this event was a big success. Grade schools, universities, as well as representatives from Bexar County Law Enforcement, participated in this educational event. Many commented on what a good occasion this was and were grateful to our school for organizing it. Towards the end of this month our kinder students and eighth graders will be having their graduation. The eighth grade graduation will be a bitter sweet time for me, as I will be happy to see our kids’ progress to their next level of education but the thought of not seeing them again saddens me. Speaking of graduation…… please remember that graduation is a great, respectful, holy, and family-and-friends event. When we attend a graduation, let us rejoice with the young men and women who are receiving diplomas but, let us respect them. Let us respect all the speakers, board members, teachers, and administrators when they speak. Let us not sound like sick animals during graduation. Let us not ridicule anyone at a graduation. Parents, please teach your children, by your good example, the respectful way to act. When people respect themselves, they show respect to everyone else. When people do not respect themselves, then they make the graduation an unhappy event by their noise and bad behavior. Jesus comes to every graduation! Let us treat Him and everyone present with the respect they deserve.

Last month we had our annual Fiesta de la Familia festival. The weather forecast is always a concern for us, and the day before the festival the weather was chilly, cloudy, and raining. When the big day arrived, everything turned out well. I know many people had a part in this successful event but I want to single out a few who deserve special recognition. From our school community, I want to sincerely thank Mrs. Hope Rodriguez who has taken on the responsibility of chairing this festival for many years and we all owe her a huge debt of gratitude. Her job is stressful and she always does it with a smile. She is truly a blessing for our school and parish community. From our parish family I want to thank Deacon Joe Lopez, Patrick Escamilla, and all those who helped them with the set up and the dismantling and storing of the festival booths. It is hard work and these two men were there from the beginning to the end. Another church group I want to recognize is the Holy Name men who grilled all the meat items; turkey legs, hamburgers, sausage, fajitas, and corn on the cob that were sold at the festival. These men started early in the day and did not stop until the festival was over. Besides the Holy Name Men, the Guadalupanos worked the turkey leg booth and the St. Vincent de Paul Society donated everything needed for the chalupa booth and worked it for the whole festival. The Knights of Columbus Council 4140 provided the dinner we had in the Parish Hall. They purchased all the food, cooked it, brought it over, served it and cleaned up afterwards. They did all this at no cost to us. In addition to these great organizations there were many individuals who helped out. These people no longer have children attending our school yet they worked hard setting up the grounds, working where needed during the festival, and tearing down and putting away the booths, tables, and chairs when the festival was over. Their consistency and devotion to our school is inspiring. At a time when it is hard to get volunteers, I find it very refreshing that these people, who do not have any family members in our school, have always been there for our school festival. May God bless them and their families for all the good they do. A full financial report on the festival will be given out just as soon as possible.

There is good and bad news about seminarian Paul Melgarejo. The bad news is he will be finishing his Pastoral Year with us this month, but the good news is that when he is finished he will continue to be with us for the summer. Paul has made a positive impact on all of us and I am happy the seminary wants him to stay with us for the summer. I want to thank you, the parishioners of St. Gregory, for the encouragement, support and prayers you have given to him. You were seen as a “teaching parish” and you provided an excellent environment for him to grow and learn what it means to be a parish priest. Please continue to keep him and all seminarians in your prayers. On another happy note, I am pleased to tell you that Assumption Seminary will again be sending a second seminarian to stay with us this month, but the good news is that when he is finished he will continue to be with us for the summer. As of the writing on this communication, I don’t know who he is but I am sure I will find out soon. I am looking forward to his arrival and ask all of you to please give him your support and encouragement just as you have given to Paul and all the other seminarians who have been with us. As with the other seminarians we have had, he will be learning from us what it means to be a priest in a parish setting.

The spiritual side of our parish is as strong as ever. On Saturday, May 11th, our Religious Education students will be celebrating their first Holy Communion with a special Mass at 11 am. These past few months has seen a sharp increase in the number of baptisms, weddings, confessions, along with an increase in daily Mass attendance. These things tell me the Spirit is very active in our parish and our people are responding to God’s call. All of this makes me very glad and grateful to God.

Well, that’s all I know for now. People all have their favorite bible verse; and whenever I get some time for personal reflection, Psalm 116:12 always come to mind, which states, “How can I repay the Lord for his goodness to me.” God’s goodness comes to me in the people who clean the church on Sundays, we have fourteen groups who do this for one entire month. The month of March was taken care of by the Guadalupanos and last month was by the Pastoral Council. The month of May will be done by the Fishers of Men. The parents of St. Gregory the Great Class of 2022 will take June and ACTS Core will do the month of July. By volunteering to clean the church, these people are helping the church get on a better financial footing. We started these groups in November 2013 and have been going strong ever since. If you are interested in joining us or want more information please contact me in person, by phone at 210-342-5271, or send me an email at fatherrudy@yahoo.com. God’s goodness also comes to me in the people who attend the Spanish Mass and help us remove and dispose of the old missals and put the new ones in the pews. It is a big job and I am so grateful to all the men, women, and children of the Spanish Mass who help us get it done. There are a whole lot more things I am thankful for, but it would take pages to list them all. All I can say is that God is so good and I feel so blessed. In my heart, I know I will never be able to pay God back or say I have earned what God has given me. All I can do is humbly say THANK YOU. Thank you Lord, for everything you have given me in the past and for placing me here at St. Gregory. God is good and cares for us so much. I pray this thought will always sustain us and help us preserve in doing his will.

May the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph watch over all of us and keep us in their care. Remember, God loves you and so do I.

Fr. Rudy T. Carrola, Jr., Pastor, St. Gregory the Great Church and School

Third Sunday of Easter, John 21:1-17. In today’s Gospel, we hear that Jesus appeared to his disciples and prepared a meal to share with them as a sign of his love and friendship.

Have you ever prepared a meal for a special occasion or for someone special?

A prayer to share with you children: Lord Jesus, help us to recognize you in the world around us and to show how much we love you by our words and actions. Amen.

Faith Formation Office RCIA - 210-342-5271 ext. 314
email: rodriguezdre440@gmail.com Office Hours: Tuesday and Thursday, 10:00 am-8:00 pm
RCIA Classes: Tuesday, 6:30 to 8:00 pm in the Parish Office
Adult Confirmation Classes: Thursday, 6:30 - 8:00 pm in the Parish Office

We are entering a new stage of the RCIA called “mystagogy,” from the Greek words meaning “to lead through the mysteries.” This is a period of accompaniment for new Catholics as they discover what it means to fully participate in the sacramental mysteries of the Church. The newly baptized are called “neophytes,” from the Greek words meaning “new plant,” because the faith has been newly planted in them. Though they completed their initiation, they still have much to learn about what it means to live as Catholic Christians. Things often look different from the inside! Once they find themselves really on the inside, many often have more questions about living a life of faith. They need your ongoing support so that the faith newly planted in them can grow deep roots.

As RCIA coordinator I think that you, the St. Gregory the Great community, have been excellent role models for our neophytes. Please share your faith with them and encourage them as they continue their own new journey of faith. As an example, the Pastoral Council have welcomed the newly initiated with a light meal and information about what the parish offers and all the ministries.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank the RCIA team, Terri and Victor Longoria, Patti de Leon, Duane Ayres, Jesse Lozano and Liz Torralva. I appreciate all their hard work, their tireless service and time and effort too. I know that I speak for the neophytes and the fully initiated when I say that their faithful diligence is sincerely appreciated by all. Their labor of love does not go unnoticed. Thank you for making the RCIA process a reality.
Music Notes
Greetings, from the Music Room!
Wow! Where has the year gone? It seems we just started, and now we are counting down the days of the last month of school!
Spring is a wonderful time of year! Sunny days, warm breezes, and the wildflowers remind us of God’s love for us. The birds sing. New leaves rustle on the trees as the promise of new life springs forth from branches that were, days ago, barren. We hear the music of nature as music flows through the air. Our students join in these melodies of creation. We give thanks to God when we see these sights and hear their songs.
Music is happening every day here in the Music Room. Kindergarteners are practicing rhythms, and soon, their graduation songs. The 1st, 2nd, and 3rd graders are learning to play the Recorder. The Drumline is working on new cadences and are getting better every day. (I love each and every student. They are so wonderful to teach!)
Music is a vital part of the life of every Christian. The Psalmist tells us, over and over, in Psalm 150, “Praise the Lord.” During this Easter Season, He has given us so much to be thankful for! Let’s break into a song of praise and thanksgiving to our wonderful and gracious God and Savior!
Blessings,
Jorgen Hoberg

HAPPINESS
Happiness will never be ours if we do not recognize to some degree that God’s blessings were given us for the well-being of all.
