El Cuerpo y La Sangre de Cristo

Jesús tomó en sus manos los cinco panes y los dos pescados, y levantando su mirada al cielo, pronunció sobre ellos una oración de acción de gracias, los partió y se los dio a sus discípulos, para que ellos los distribuyeran entre la gente.

THE EUCHARIST
Just as the bread, which is made from the earth, when God is invoked is no longer common bread but the Eucharist, both earthly and heavenly, so our bodies, after we have received the Eucharist, are no longer corruptible, since they hold the hope of the resurrection.

—St. Irenaeus

Faith Formation Office RCIA - 210-342-5271 ext. 314
email: rodriguezdre440@gmail.com
Office Hours: Tuesday and Thursday, 10:00 am-8:00 pm
RCIA Classes: Tuesday, 6:30 to 8:00 pm in the Parish Office
Adult Confirmation Classes: Thursday, 6:30 - 8:00 pm in the Parish Office

We continue with the frequently asked questions about RCIA.

I’m already baptized in another denomination. Do I need to attend RCIA?

That depends. The Catholic Church doesn’t re-baptize people who are already baptized in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. If you are baptized but never received any instruction in the faith, you should receive instruction now and finish any sacraments you did not complete. RCIA is recommended even if you have been well instructed in another faith tradition, since you will need to learn how the beliefs and practices you grew up with differ from the beliefs and practices of the Catholic Church. If you are a baptized and confirmed Catholic returning to the practice of the faith and have been away for more than 8 years, we recommend that you go through RCIA for the instruction.

I’ve been divorced and now remarried, and my spouse is divorced and remarried. Can I become Catholic?

You and your current spouse need to begin the annulment process, and you should begin it as soon as possible even if your spouse is not considering entry into the Church. Please contact Father Rudy for information on how to proceed. Of course, you can attend RCIA instructions while the annulment process is ongoing. But reception into the Church must wait until the annulment process has been completed.

If you are interested in the RCIA process, please contact Rosalinda Rodriguez at the email or phone number shown above.
