My Dear Parish Family,

A male child, conceived at the hand of God, is born to a virgin mother in the town of Bethlehem. Mary, his mother, and Joseph his foster father and a descendent of Israel's King David, were from Nazareth, but a census ordered by the empire forced them to return to the place of Joseph's familial roots. There, Jesus was born, not in opulence, but in a cave surrounded by farm animals. The Jews believed that the Messiah would come from the "line of David" and the birthplace of King David would be the birthplace of the "King of kings." And so it was that the King of kings was visited by both shepherds and kings; he was raised in modest surroundings learning his trade from Joseph. As a child he preached in his father's house and as a man, he gathered twelve non-descript men and traveled speaking the truth as was given to him by his Father in heaven. His kingship was different from any other. He preached love, mercy and showed compassion to sinners. He healed the poor and ate with the outcasts.

In John's Gospel, Pilate questions Jesus if he is the king of the Jews. Jesus clearly said that his kingdom is not of this world. He wore no gold crown, but instead a crown of thorns was placed upon his head. He had no great throne, but was nailed to a cross that would ultimately be the instrument that would bring salvation to the world.

In the Book of Revelation, John reminds us all that Jesus is the King of Love; he proved his love by dying to free us from sin. John brings hope to the hopeless during a period of Roman persecution. John reminded people that Jesus, the Risen Savior, was in their midst to give them reassurance they so desperately needed. Are we not living in turbulent times? John assures us that Jesus will come again. Jesus said that he is "the Alpha and the Omega, the one who is and who was and who is to come, the almighty." Jesus established his Kingdom beginning here on earth ... a kingdom that will flourish forever in the glory of heaven.

Daniel assures us in the first reading that the Son of man will come and triumph over all the nations on earth and his kingship will never be destroyed.

On this last Sunday of the liturgical year the Church celebrates the Solemnity of Christ the King. Pope Pius XI, in 1925 instituted this solemnity. The First World War had just ended and secularism was emerging at great strength; dictatorships were on the rise throughout Europe. In the early part of the 20th Century, Europe experienced great unrest and the Holy Father witnessed a decline in the respect and reverence for Christ's authority. Although Jesus had been referred to as "king" for a long while, Pope Pius' intent was to reaffirm and refocus faith and reverence in the kingship of Jesus Christ. Pope Pius XI believed: that governments would acknowledge that the Church had the right to freedom, and exemption from the state; that leaders and nations would give respect to Christ; that the faithful would be strengthened and encouraged from the feast and reminded that Christ must reign in our hearts, minds and bodies.

Pilate ordered the words "Jesus of Nazareth, King of the Jews" be placed on the Cross (INRI). Did Pilate truly believe that Jesus was the King of the Jews or were the words placed there to mock Jesus? Ironically, it does not matter because we who believe know that Jesus is the King of all.

May we celebrate this day and every day giving time in prayer and meditating on the King of kings - our King who was born of humble beginnings, a king who came not to be served, but to serve, a king who gave his life so we could live now and forever.

In Christ,
Anne DeMarco, Pastoral Minister
