From the Heart by Fr. Jason Kern

As we celebrate our Lord's entry into Jerusalem this week and read His passion, might we come with humble hearts ready to receive the outpouring love of Jesus from the Cross. The city of Jerusalem where Jesus enters was a remarkable city even in Jesus' day. The word Jerusalem means, "city of peace" or "abode of peace". The King of Peace is entering the city of peace. Yet, the tragic reality is that into the city of peace, the king of peace enters peacefully and triumphantly as in the Procession of the Mass in the manner the priest enters. Joyous and processing through the crowds. Yet, the crowds will ultimately turn from receiving the Messiah and Savior, to crucifying Him. Yet, what appears outwardly as tragic, is the inward working of grace. While the crowds shout crucify Him, crucify Him; He will freely lay down His life for them out of love. It is Jesus' offering of Himself and not anyone taking something from Him. What the crowds don't know and cannot fully understand yet is that Jesus is doing this for them. Jesus is dying in atonement for their sins as the Passover Lamb that is sacrificed as an offering to the Father.

This glorious reality is celebrated this week. We have beautiful days ahead (not speaking of the weather) where we will celebrate in gratitude all that Jesus is for us and with us. The Church glories in these days and we have much to rejoice in as Heaven comes to earth to lift us to Heaven. May these days be holy for you.

A special thank you to Fr. Will Thompson for generously agreeing to be with us this weekend as I am away to assist with a retreat in Brainerd with 32 MSU Students and our FOCUS Missionary team. Please keep us in your prayers—the theme of the retreat is called the Father's House Retreat and emphasizes the love of God the Father and our true identity as beloved sons and daughters in Christ. There is much healing and opening to the life of grace that flows from this retreat.

I look forward to returning to the parishes for the most holy days of the year—the Sacred Triduum. This Thursday we rejoice in the gift of the Eucharist. This Friday we enter the passion of our Lord and its saving effects on the whole world. And then we rejoice with hearts full at the Resurrection as our Lord triumphs over sin and death once and for all.

This Sunday, April 9, from 10 a.m.—10 p.m., will be the last opportunity for Eucharistic Adoration during Lent. Come and prepare for Holy Week by spending some time with Our Lord in the Eucharist. You can come for as long or short a time as you wish. Stop by to spend time with Jesus—

He is waiting for you.

Tri-Parish Donations for Easter Flowers: If you would like to help to make our churches more beautiful this Easter season you may make a donation for Easter flowers by using the specially marked envelope enclosed with your regular monthly support envelope; if you don't have that envelope please use another envelope and mark it "Easter Flowers". You may also enclose names of persons you want remembered.

GOOD FRIDAY Collection: Pope Francis has asked our parishes to support the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, which helps Christians in the Holy Land. The wars, unrest and instability has been especially difficult for Christians. In these times of crisis, the Good Friday Collection helps the Church minister in parishes, provide Catholic school and other religious education, as well as humanitarian aid to refugees. By contributing to the Good Friday Collection, you become an instrument of peace and join with Catholics around the world in solidarity with the Church in the Holy Land.

After Mass on Holy Thursday, we follow the beautiful tradition of "walking with Jesus to the Garden of Gethsemane."

This is a solemn procession that carries the consecrated Sacred Host from the main altar to the Altar of Repose, beautifully decorated to show the honor and glory of the Lord who is there. We then "wait with Jesus" staying in silence to adore our Lord and pray with him as He prepares for his coming passion and death. We will remain in prayer with Jesus at the Altar of Repose until midnight. Please consider spending some time with him during those few hours.

Catholic book lending library now available.

To find a good book, go to the St. Teresa gathering space and sign out a book from the new book shelf (near the couches). Take it with you or sit and read there. Many great titles to choose from!

GOOD FRIDAY FASTING AND ABSTINENCE "All Catholics who are between the ages of 18 and 59 are required to fast on Good Friday." "Fasting" means limiting oneself to only one full meal. If it is necessary to maintain strength, Catholics may eat two additional smaller meals that together are not equal to the one full meal. We also fast from eating between meals. "All Catholics who are 14 years old and older are required to abstain from meat on Good Friday." "Parents are to see to it that minors who are not bound by the law of fast and abstinence are educated in an authentic sense of Penance" (Code of Canon Law, #1251-1252)

Women's Book club will not meet in April. We will read All the Light You Cannot See, by Anthony Doerr and meet in June to discuss that book. Everyone is invited to join! If you have any questions, contact the tri-parish office 524-3127.

We joyfully welcome into our Catholic family Lane Carter Geromo, son of Noah and Chelsea Geromo, who was Baptized into the Mystical Body of Christ on April 2 at St. Teresa Church. Please pray for Lane and his family as they continue to grow in Christ's mercy and love.

Our Catholic World

The Divine Mercy Novena

Divine Mercy Sunday April 23

Jesus asked that the Feast of the Divine Mercy be preceded by a Novena to the Divine Mercy which would begin on Good Friday. He gave St. Faustina an intention to pray for on each day of the Novena, saving for the last day the most difficult intention of all, the lukewarm and indifferent of whom He said: "These souls cause Me more suffering than any others; it was from such souls that My soul felt the most revulsion in the Garden of Olives. It was on their account that I said: 'My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass Me by.' The last hope of salvation for them is to flee to My Mercy." In her diary, St. Faustina wrote that Jesus told her:

"On each day of the novena you will bring to My heart a different group of souls and you will immerse them in this ocean of My mercy ... On each day you will beg My Father, on the strength of My passion, for the graces for these souls."

- During the Solemn Novena leading to Divine Mercy Sunday, the Chaplet of Divine Mercy should be offered each day for the day's intentions.
- Pamphlets with the Novena and instructions for the Chaplet are available at each church.

Confession heals, confession justifies, confession grants pardon of sin, all hope consists in confession; in confession there is a chance for mercy. -St. Isidore of Seville

Confession is an act of honesty and courage - an act of entrusting ourselves, beyond sin, to the mercy of a loving and forgiving God. -Pope John Paul 2

There is still time to make a good confession before Easter. Come and receive the mercy of God.
