From Pastor's desk: Tenth Sunday in Ordinary Time 2018.

Reflection: Mark 3, 20-35: It is the end of Satan. We return today to Sundays in Ordinary Time. Most of the Gospel readings during Ordinary Time this year are taken from the Gospel of Saint Mark. He wrote his Gospel as a dramatic story with Jesus at the center. Jesus is always moving, inviting his disciples and all of us to follow. Mark wanted those who heard or read his Gospel to come to understand Jesus and recognize him as the Son of God. As is typical, Jesus moves quickly through a growing crowd in today's Gospel, rebuking those who misunderstand his power, warning those who blaspheme against the Holy Spirit, and redefining their understanding of family. Let us rejoice in his presence now as you go forth to reflect on God's word at in ordinary Time. Time is a God's gift to us. What we do with our time is our gift to God. As you continue on your journey of faith, we pray that you will welcome the Lord Jesus as your constant companion. Eternal God, you have provided us with the gift of time. Guide our efforts to use the time you give us wisely to do your will in our relationships and our work. We place our complete trust in you now and always.

Desde el escritorio del Pastor: Décimo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario 2018.
Reflexión: Marcos 3, 20-35: Es el final de Satanás. Volvemos hoy a los domingos en tiempo ordinario. La mayoría de las lecturas del Evangelio durante el tiempo ordinario de este año están tomadas del Evangelio de San Marcos. Escribió su Evangelio como una historia dramática con Jesús en siempre en movimiento, invitando a sus discípulos y a todos a seguir. Marcos quería que aquellos que escucharon o leyeron su Evangelio a llegar a entender a Jesús y reconocerlo como el Hijo de Dios. Como es típico, Jesús se mueve rápidamente a través de una multitud creciente en el Evangelio de hoy, reprendiendo a aquellos que malinterpretan su poder, advirtiendo a aquellos que blasfeman contra el Espíritu Santo, y redefinir su comprensión de la familia. Vamos a regocijarnos en su presencia ahora cuando salgas a reflexionar en la palabra de Dios en el Tiempo ordinario. El tiempo es un regalo de Dios para nosotros. Lo que hacemos con nuestro tiempo es nuestro regalo a Dios. Mientras continúas en tu camino de fe, te pedimos que acojas al Señor Jesús como tu compañero constante. Dios eterno, tú nos has dado el don del tiempo. Guíe nuestros esfuerzos para utilizar el tiempo que nos da sabiamente para hacer su voluntad en nuestras relaciones y nuestro trabajo. Ponemos nuestra total confianza en usted ahora y siempre.
