From the Deacon's Bench

Brothers and Sisters,

It's Tuesday as I write this, and I will note that my calendar marks the day as a day when we honor Mary as our Mother of Providence. Providence is best defined as the protective care of God. And, as we close a fiscal year and begin a new one, we find ourselves again trusting in providence.

As of this writing, we do not have a tenant for the school building and are looking at another deficit budget. That stated, there are still a few possibilities in the works, and the archdiocese continues to be supportive of our mission and efforts. Continue to pray that we will find a sound solution. We made it through the last fiscal year with the support of our parish family, and we can do it again.

At the beginning of Lent, a special projects collection was begun to cover various projects that simply were not in our limited budget. Last Sunday, Charlie Murdock gave a brief presentation on how those funds were used. The insert in today's bulletin gives a more detailed accounting.

Thank you to Charlie for taking the initiative on these projects, and thank you to all those who so generously contributed.

Trust in Providence! We may be small, but we are mighty!

Peace,
Dcn. Kerry

2019 Annual Mission Day – Bruised & Wounded

Recognizing that there is still a stigma, in both the Christian and secular world, surrounding death by suicide, Fr. Rolheiser takes his spiritual understanding of the woundedness of those whose lives end in this pain and “breathes out the compassion and peace of God” in his book, “Bruised and Wounded.” Many, many people in the world have been touched by suicide. Fr.

Rolheiser’s writings provide hope, consolation, and empathy to those left behind.

Join us on September 10 from 8:30 am – 4:00 pm at The Atrium Banquet & Conference Center (Inside Carson Plus Shopping Center @ 3143 Thompson Road, Indianapolis, IN 46227) to hear keynote speaker Fr. Ronald Rolheiser explain the struggles of understanding suicide.
