*To learn anew the Gospel:
The Good News that God loves us—Then to live it and share it.*

From the Deacon's Bench

Brothers and Sisters,

Hopefully, with our midsummer heat wave you have managed to keep cool. Let's pray not just for relief from the heat, but also for those without the resources to keep their homes cool and for those who have no home to keep cool.

We've had some changes in the parish office in the last few weeks. Lisa Akers, who is our business manager/bookkeeper, is still with us but will no longer be in during the day on Tuesdays. She'll be working some late afternoons and evenings and focusing just on financial matters. Lisa has taken a full-time day job with an accounting group. As much as she loves what she does here and values our mission, she has high school and college aged children, and as we all know that can get to be expensive.

Darlene Barnett will be taking over scheduling and other duties, and Mary Thompson will be putting together the bulletin. As in the past, my plan is to be at the parish all day on Tuesdays and Wednesdays, unless a meeting or something else calls for me to be away. Thursdays, I will usually be at the parish office unless I need to be at the Catholic Center preparing for a formation weekend. Mondays are my day to focus on the formation office at the Catholic Center, and Fridays I try to take as a day away. That stated, I am always available by phone (317-442-8217) – any day – any time of day. If I don't answer, please leave a message. I will get back to you.

Please support our parish raffle.

Among other things, it will help to support our outreach programs this fall and winter as we continue to carry out our mission in our corner of the kingdom.

Peace,
Dcn. Kerry

Remember this: Are you at the brink of despair, thinking that you cannot bear another day of heartache? Your Savior knows your breaking point. The bruising and crushing and melting process is designed to reshape you, not ruin you. Your value is increasing the longer He lingers over you. - Charles Swindoll

2019 Annual Mission Day – Bruised & Wounded

Recognizing that there is still a stigma, in both the Christian and secular world, surrounding death by suicide, Fr. Rolheiser takes his spiritual understanding of the woundedness of those whose lives end in this pain and “breathes out the compassion and peace of God” in his book, “Bruised and Wounded.” Many, many people in the world have been touched by suicide. Fr. Rolheiser’s writings provide hope, consolation, and empathy to those left behind.

Join us on September 10 from 8:30 am – 4:00 pm at The Atrium Banquet & Conference Center (Inside Carson Plus Shopping Center @ 3143 Thompson Road, Indianapolis, IN 46227) to hear keynote speaker Fr. Ronald Rolheiser explain the struggles of understanding suicide.
