The Good News that God loves us—Then to live it and share it.*

From the Deacon's Bench

Brothers and Sisters,

Well, it's time for thank you's and mark your calendar notes. So...

Thank you for generously keeping up with your Sunday pledges. Where the box on the back of the bulletin shows that we are running ahead on pledges, please remember that we still are operating with a deficit budget again this year without anyone renting the school building. Please continue to be as generous as possible.

Thank you to all those who help keep the parish running and looking good – from help in the office to maintaining the gardens and grounds. Thank you to those who make our liturgies reverent and holy – our servers, our cantors and choir, our extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion, our lectors, and our ushers. And, a special thank you to the priests who go out of their way to be with us each Sunday. Our celebrations are the center of who we are as a parish.

Thank you to the Knights and Ladies Auxiliary of Peter Claver who help with many seen and unseen projects. Today, the Ladies will be hosting an ice cream social after Mass, and the Knights will be hosting their "Stepping into Fall" luncheon on September 7th.

Thank you to the members of our St. Vincent de Paul Society who quietly make such a great difference in the lives of those in need. It is hard to believe the volume of work that a small, but devoted, group of people can accomplish. (If you'd like to help, they are always looking for volunteers.)

Thank you to our Pastoral Council members for their insights and hard work for the good of our parish. From organizing Market Day events and parish picnics to handling the winter and summer raffles, there's more to their service than showing up at meetings.

One last note: be certain to mark your calendar for the indoor parish "picnic" on September 15. And, stay tuned as we will be getting organized for the Thanksgiving and Christmas outreach programs.

"We are small, but we are mighty."

Peace,
Dcn. Kerry
