Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

This is the first weekend since the beginning of Easter that there has not been a change in the Mass schedule or a food festival or fair. These have definitely made the season special but also go by very quickly. With this shift, there is also the sign that we are getting to the end of the school year, graduations, and the beginning of summer vacations. With that, a special congratulations to all those graduating this spring whether it be from Pre-K, Kindergarten, 8th grade, high school, college or an advanced degree!

As we approach the end of the Easter Season, we are quickly approaching the great feast day of Pentecost. With this feast day, many pray the Novena to the Holy Spirit for the Seven Gifts. I believe this is one of the oldest novenas in the Church. So, we are going to provide in the back of St. Elizabeth and St. Jules copies of this novena. To join in the novena, please start praying it on Friday, May 26th. The novena will be printed on red paper so that you will not be able to miss them. You can also find the novena on our website (www.sesjchurch.com) either on the homepage or under Resources > Prayers. I prayed this particular Novena last year for the first time and it was a wonderful way to remind me of what I received at my Confirmation and to call upon these gifts the Lord provides to all of us that are confirmed!

In other news, I mentioned two weeks ago that we had a new sister, Sr. Alphonse, join our community. Well, this weekend another sister will be joining us as well. The Mother General of the Carmelites will have visited our sisters this past week as well. I hope to have in an upcoming bulletin, a short article/biography. On a sad note though, Sr. Navya will be returning back to India in two weeks. She will be departing on June 4th. To celebrate her time with us as well to welcome our two sisters, we will be having a reception possibly on June 3rd. I will have more information next week for you. I will also send out notifications through Flocknote and on our website.

Finally, I will be taking a few days off starting next weekend. I will be out on Friday, May 26th through June 1st for a little R&R, attending our new priests' ordination, and celebrating with my classmates, Fr. Reuben Dykes and Fr. Brad Doyle, the 2nd anniversary of being ordained a priest. Please offer a prayer for me during this time to get some rest and to recharge. I will definitely be praying for you.

Through the Alliance of the Two Hearts,

Fr. Matthew

New on Formed: Why God Still Matters

Have you noticed how some of the New Atheists don't even bother trying to disprove God's existence? Your arguments in favor of God don't even deserve a reply, they say, because not only does God not exist—he doesn't even matter.

We don't need God to explain the universe, they say. We don't need him to be moral or happy. And we don't need him to guide us or help figure things out—science can take care of that. Take away the need for God, they conclude, and the human urge to believe in him disappears.

In Why God Still Matters, apologist Karlo Broussard doesn't let them off so easy. In this engaging video he takes apart the premises of those who say God is irrelevant, showing you how you can explain to atheists:

- That science can say a lot about the created world but not why it's there in the first place
- Why thinking that science has all the answers is itself a kind of unscientific blind faith
- How morality and happiness are possible to some degree without God, but hopelessly limited
- Many positive reasons to conclude that God not only matters, but that he is real

...and much more. Don't let atheists shut down the argument before it begins! Watch Why God Still Matters and be ready to demonstrate why God is just as important as he ever was—in fact, in today's world, more important than ever.
