Twenty-sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

In invoking Our Lord's name with reverential faith, one is turning to Him and imploring His divine assistance. An old spiritual manual cited four special rewards of invoking the holy name: First, the name of Jesus brings help in bodily needs. Jesus Himself promised at the Ascension, "In my name they will cast out demons, they will speak in new tongues, they will pick up serpents, and if they drink any deadly thing, it will not hurt them, they will lay their hands on the sick and they will recover" (Mk 16:17-19).

Second, the name of Jesus gives help in spiritual trials. Jesus forgave sins, and through the invocation of His name, sins continue to be forgiven. At Pentecost, St. Peter echoed the prophecy of Joel: "Then shall everyone be saved who calls on the name of the Lord" (Acts 2:21). As St. Stephen, the first martyr, was being stoned, he called upon the name of the Lord and prayed, "Lord Jesus, receive my spirit" (Acts 7:59).

Third, the name of Jesus protects the person against Satan and his temptations. Jesus on His own authority rebuked Satan and exorcized demons (e.g., the temptations in the desert, Mt 4:1-11).

Finally, we receive every grace and blessing through the Holy Name of Jesus. He said, "I give you my assurance, whatever you ask the Father, He will give you in my name" (Jn 16:23-24). In summary, St. Paul said, "Whatever you do, whether in speech or in action, do it in the name of the Lord Jesus" (Col 3:17).
