Feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross, Weekend of September 20/21, 2014 – From an early age, we tend to distort the concept of “fairness”: “I am good. I deserve good things. I am not receiving good things. Something must be wrong. Who’s going to fix it?” We also know the age-old expression: “Who ever said life was fair?” Jesus knew this expression when he offered his parable in today’s Gospel reading. Christian stewards acknowledge, with humility, that they receive good things from the Lord in abundance; even if these gifts are not the ones they think they need when they need them. Consider which servants you identify with most in the Gospel reading, the ones who demand “fairness,” or that final servant who, seemingly, deserves the least.

Ministries Meeting – September 20 & 21 after the weekend Masses: Deacon Tim will meet with Lectors, Altar Servers, Eucharistic Ministers, & Ushers after each Mass. Please plan to stay for the meeting if you are able. This is to help all the parishes in the Consortium have consistent practices so the celebration of the Mass will flow smoothly and those in the various ministries will know what to expect.
