Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, November 22/23 – In today’s Gospel, Saint Matthew offers a compelling vision of the end-time, when the people of all the nations are brought before the Lord to give an account of their lives and actions. Interestingly, the sheep, the righteous ones, are rewarded for having acted with love and compassion without having recognized the face of Christ in others. Good stewards recognize those in need of their care as gifts from God. They know that they are the instruments of Christ’s active, loving presence in the world. How will we treat others this week: our family members, neighbors, customers, or strangers? What accounting will we make to the Lord for their care?

Thank you to everyone who ran for Parish Council. The new members are Don Hawk, John Higgins, and Marie Holland. They will begin their 3-year terms at the December 1st meeting.

Giving Thanks

I give you thanks, Lord, for my perfect arms when so many have suffered mutilation.

For my perfect eyes when so many cannot see.

For my voice that sings when so many are reduced to silence.

For my hands that work when so many beg.

O wondrous Lord, to have a home, to return to it, when there are so many brothers and sisters who have nowhere to go.

To smile, to dream, to love, when so many cry, and so many hate each other.

Above all, to have little to ask you for and so much to thank you for.
