Third Sunday in Ordinary Time, January 24 & 25 – The first disciples of Jesus in today's Gospel left their work and their daily routines to follow him. They abandoned their livelihoods, familiar surroundings and the lives to which they had become accustomed to be closer to him. The good steward finds ways to be removed from what may be a comfortable existence or daily routine in order to serve the Lord more faithfully. All too often, out of fear, insecurity or even selfishness, we refuse to leave the safe cocoon of existence we have created for ourselves in order to hear the Lord's call and be challenged by his Gospel. Perhaps we should reflect on what comforts we need to sacrifice in order to be better stewards of God's compassionate life.

The KofC will have a Fish Dinner Friday, January 30th from 5 to 7pm. Throughout the year the Knights frequently sponsor a fish fry for a particular church or community organization. A donation is made to the organization from the proceeds of the Fish Fry. From the proceeds from this Friday's Fish Fry, the March for Life will be recognized through a donation to help defray the costs of last week's trip to Washington, D.C. The Knights thank you for your support and hope you will join us for a great dinner and support of this very worthwhile cause.

In preparation for the World Meeting of Families in Philadelphia this summer, Fr. Vince would like to invite all St Luke Parishioners to read and discuss the book, "Love Is Our Mission: The Family Fully Alive."

Fr. Vince will kick off the first session of each small group beginning the week of February 2nd. Father will provide an overview of the book and of the upcoming meeting in Philadelphia to each small group. In addition to reading and discussing the above book, Fr. Vince is planning to have a seven-week Speaker Series in which a qualified speaker will present a given topic pertaining to the family followed by a question and answer session. All parishioners are invited to attend. Small groups will not meet on the weeks that a Speaker is giving a presentation for that week. More information on the speaker series will be coming soon!

Books are available for purchase in the parish office or may be purchased following the Masses the weekend of Jan. 31/Feb. 1 for a cost of $8. Cash or checks made payable to St. Luke Parish will be accepted.

Please call the parish office if you are interested in joining a small church community to participate in this program. The groups that meet Tuesday at 7pm and Wednesday at 9:30am have room for more people. Other groups may be formed. If you would like to lead a group, training would be provided.
