Where were you in 1968? That was the year that Blessed Pope Paul VI wrote Humanae Vitae (On Human Life) as an affirmation of the Catholic Church's beautiful teaching on married love and responsible parenthood. Many people think they know what the document says, but few have actually read it. Celebrate Humanae Vitae's 50th anniversary by reading the original encyclical, viewing videos of couples' HV stories or recording your own HV story at <https://celebratehv50.com/>.

As we celebrate our country's freedom let us reflect on the freedom given to us through Baptism – to be heirs of the promise and liberated from sin. The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults or RCIA is the way by which persons become “citizens of the Kingdom” through Baptism or Confirmation and Eucharist. Inquiry sessions are being formed. For more information contact Greg Henkel at 740-392-4711, ext 5.

St. Luke Community Festival is Saturday, July 14th from 5:00-9:00pm.

It takes all of us to make the festival a huge success

Volunteers: Volunteers are needed to make the festival a success. If you're new to the parish this is a great way to get to know folks. Sign-up sheets are in the back of the church.

Auction: This week committee members will be outside of the side entrance of the church after Masses for you to sign up for auction items and/or the Flea Market Flip. If you need assistance with an idea these people can also help you or answer your questions. If you purchased an auction item in previous years that included a basket, please consider donating the basket so that we can reuse them this year. Just drop them off at the Parish office.

Fancy Goods Country Store: Needs your help to stock it with all kinds of fancy desirables that you can eat, wear, or show. Examples include: Garden produce, baked goods, candies and jams, new craft items and plants. Bring items the day of the festival or call Janet Hawk at 740-599-6416.

Bingo Prizes Needed: If you would like to donate a prize for the Bingo game, please contact Deb Ridgway at 740-501-0825.

Don't forget the challenge to repurpose, restore, or reinvent a flea market find: Questions call Mindy Rashley at 330-472-8747.

Please bring auction items to the Parish Office by noon on Friday, July 13. Thank you to everyone who has made a donation. The auction will be great fun!

Thank you.... Knights of Columbus and PCCW: Thank you to everyone who is a part of these groups. I am honored to be chosen as one of the recipients of this scholarship. The money will help me pay for my textbooks and other expenses this year. I really appreciate it! Lauren Mickley

St. Luke and St. Vincent have subscribed to a new educational tool by Bishop Robert Barron. The program is called “Word on Fire” and consists of all of Bishop Barron's videos. These are available to you via email and are free. You can access these videos from your computer, tablet, or smart phone as often as you like and use them for home study as Bishop Barron takes you on a Catholic journey guaranteed to spark your faith. We have been conducting a trial run of “Word on Fire” and are ready to offer parish wide. Remember this is free to you. So far we have over 40 parishioners registered. All we need is your email address and or mobile phone #. To make this as easy as possible, there will be cards in the pews this week. Father will give some time at the end of Mass to fill them out and the ushers will gather them. This program is a great way to learn more about our faith. If you were unable to fill out a card, you can email your information to the office at stluke@ecr.net.

Volunteers: We are looking for adult volunteers to work with the youth group for the upcoming year. Youth group include 9th through 12th grade students. If you are interested in serving your parish youth or have any questions, contact the parish office at 740-599-6362.

Catechism of the Catholic Church 1504: Often Jesus asks the sick to believe. He makes use of signs to heal: spittle and the laying on of hands, mud and washing. The sick try to touch him, “for power came forth from him and healed them all.” And so in the sacraments Christ continues to “touch” us in order to heal us.
