Thank you... Our heartfelt thank you and all of my gratitude for your generous giving in celebration of Tom's life. To Father Blubaugh, Deacon Tim Birie, Rochelle and the beautiful choir, servers, Eucharistic Ministers and the ladies who cooked and served a beautiful luncheon and everyone who gave of themselves to help. All those who prayed for Tom in those many months of his illness. Tom so loved the Knights of Columbus and I am very grateful for the gathering of many 3rd and 4th degree Knights to honor and protect him during his final journey. We will be forever grateful, Kathy Gault and Family

The Danville Community Library wishes to thank the people of St. Luke's for helping to make our summer reading program a great success. Without your generous support we would not be able to continue this amazing program. "Libraries Rock, was this year's theme. We had 122 adults sign up with 567 books read. There were 29 young adults signed up with 135 books read. We had 83 children sign up with 2069 books being read. Libraries are an indicator that a town and those living in it, are invested in it. Whether you use all of the services or not, it does provide benefit to the entire community. Thank you and we look forward to the 2019 program, "A Universe of Stories". Elizabeth Carpenter

Catechism of the Catholic Church 1334, 1335: In the old Covenant bread and wine were offered in sacrifice among the first fruits of the earth as a sign of grateful acknowledgment to the Creator. But they also received a new significance in the context of the Exodus: the unleavened bread that Israel eats every year at Passover commemorates the haste of the departure that liberated them from Egypt; the remembrance of the manna in the desert will always recall to Israel that it lives by the bread of the Word of God; their daily bread is the fruit of the promised land, the pledge of God's faithfulness to his promises. The "cup of blessing" at the end of the Jewish Passover meal adds to the festive joy of wine an eschatological dimension: the messianic expectation of the rebuilding of Jerusalem. When Jesus instituted the Eucharist, he gave a new and definitive meaning to the blessing of the bread and the cup. The miracles of the multiplication of the loaves, when the Lord says the blessing, breaks and distributes the loaves through his disciples to feed the multitude, prefigure the superabundance of this unique bread of his Eucharist. The sign of water turned into wine at Cana already announces the Hour of Jesus' glorification. It makes manifest the fulfillment of the wedding feast in the Father's kingdom, where the faithful will drink the new wine that has become the Blood of Christ.
