Monday, April 8 – The Memorare – Remember, O gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thine intercession was left unaided. Inspired by this confidence, I fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins, my mother; to thee do I come, before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me. Amen

LEAF – Listening, Encouraging and Assisting Families of the Incarcerated – is a resource and referral ministry that offers a community of compassion, caring, and support to families and loved ones of the incarcerated, irrespective of faith affiliation. Good Friday Walking Stations of the Cross: Join hundreds of Catholics from across the diocese in the annual Good Friday Walking Stations of the Cross. The walk begins with opening prayer at St. Joseph Cathedral, 212 E. Broad St., Columbus, at 8 a.m., Good Friday, April 19, 2019. Many facets of faith and justice will be the focus as participants recognize Jesus Christ’s suffering and crucifixion as well as reflect on current social concerns. Open to all ages. Good Friday Collection: Christians around the world are united in a special way during Lent, Holy Week and Easter. Our hearts, minds, and prayers are also especially aware of the Holy Land. Our parish, once a year on Good Friday, is called on to support Christians in the Holy Land. As a pontifical collection requested by Pope Francis, the annual Good Friday collection offers a direct link for parishioners to be witnesses of peace and to help protect the Holy Places. When you donate on Good Friday, you are supporting Christians in the Holy Land. Franciscans and others in the Holy Land are housing and feeding the poor, providing formation and education, maintaining shrines and parishes, and conducting pastoral ministry. For more information, visit www.myfranciscan.org.

“The Living Stations of the Cross,” our Good Friday tradition at St. Luke, will be dedicated to Father Snoke. We are thankful for his life’s work and devotion to St. Luke over the 25 years he served us. Father also taught in most all diocesan high schools in Columbus and some in other areas, working with and teaching young people. He brought the “Living Stations” to St. Luke and we have been blessed to put this production on each year with our youth. The Stations begin at dusk 8:30pm on Good Friday, April 19 in St. Luke Church. All are most welcome. Questions call Tom 740-507-0029, Tammy Harrmann at 740-504-3269 or Sheryl Mickley at 740-599-6237. Practice will be at 4pm on Friday. Dinner will be provided for the students participating in the stations.

Catechism of the Catholic Church 1096: Jewish liturgy and Christian liturgy. A better knowledge of the Jewish people’s faith and religious life as professed and lived even now can help our better understanding of certain aspects of Christian liturgy. For both Jews and Christians Sacred Scriptures is and essential part of their respective liturgies: in the proclamation of the Word of God, the response to this word, prayer of praise and intercession for the living and the dead, invocation of God’s mercy. In Liturgy of the Hours and other liturgical texts and formularies, as well as those of our most venerable prayers, including the Lord’s Prayer, have parallels in Jewish prayer. The Eucharistic Prayers also draw their inspiration from the Jewish tradition. The relationship between Jewish liturgy and Christian liturgy, but also their differences in content, are particularly evident in the great feasts of the liturgical year, such as Passover. Christians and Jews both celebrate the Passover. For Jews, it is the Passover of history, tending toward the future; for Christians, it is the Passover fulfilled in the death and Resurrection of Christ, though always in expectation of its definitive consummation.
