As our ADAM Lenten Services and Luncheon end for this Lent, we remember when it all began with Lent of 1992, 27 years ago. God bless all who are a part of this ministry and committed to community, especially Fr. Snoke. Let's keep sharing and praying together.

Seminarian Seth Keller, who has helped here for Holy Week in the past, will be ordained to the Sacred Order of Deacon by the Most Reverend Robert Brennan, Bishop of Columbus, on Friday May 3rd at 7:00pm at St. Joseph Cathedral in Columbus. A light reception will follow both Masses in the parish hall. All are cordially invited to attend these events. Seth wishes to express his deep gratitude for your support and prayers, and he looks forward to sharing these joyous occasions with you.

A Monthly prayer service at St. Vincent will be held on May 5, first Sunday of each month at 4pm. We will follow the prayers of the Enthronement ceremony (copies will be available). Catechism of the Catholic Church 640, 641: "Why do you seek the living among the dead? He is not here, but has risen." The first element we encounter in the framework of the Easter events is the empty tomb. In itself it is not a direct proof of Resurrection; the absence of Christ's body from the tomb could be explained otherwise. Nonetheless the empty tomb was still an essential sign for all. Its discovery by the disciples was the first step toward recognizing the very fact of the Resurrection. This was the case, first with the holy women, and then with Peter. The disciple "whom Jesus loved" affirmed that when he entered the empty tomb and discovered "the linen cloths lying there," "he saw and believed." This suggests that he realized from the empty tomb's condition that the absence of Jesus' body could not have been of human doing and that Jesus had not simply returned to earthly life as had been the case with Lazarus. Mary Magdalene and the holy women who came to finish anointing the body of Jesus, which had been buried in haste because the Sabbath began on the evening of Good Friday, were the first to encounter the Risen One. Thus the women were the first messengers of Christ's Resurrection for the apostles themselves. They were the next to whom Jesus appears: first Peter, then the Twelve. Peter had been called to strengthen the faith of his brothers, and so sees the Risen One before them; it is on the basis of his testimony that the community exclaims: "The Lord has risen indeed, and has appeared to Simon!"
