Dear Community Members,

We are now in the Octave of Pentecost, looking toward Trinity Sunday. The office of None on Saturday marks the end of Paschal/Ascension/Whitsun Tide. This past octave week also saw the three Summer Ember Days. However, this time, though we may do so individually, those days are liturgically not observed by extra penances and mortifications. Remember, the Octave of Pentecost continues the celebration of the Feast for eight days. In fact, there is no requirement for abstinence from meat on Pentecost Friday.

Well, it was certainly a splendid Pentecost, wasn't it? Ah, to be able to celebrate Solemn Mass on such a special day was quite a holy thrill to me. We all thank Fathers Michael Stinson and Joseph Hearty for their presence and I thank them, especially, for their assistance. I hope you all were pleased to see the beautiful vestments you all sacrificed for. What a joy to be able to celebrate the fullness of the Liturgy as the Church has always envisioned!

And what an anniversary celebration you provided for your Chaplain! I was both humbled and elated at the same time. The decorations were gorgeous, the food sublime, the wine delicious and the desserts scrumptious! For that, we have to thank, of course, quite a few folks who rose to the occasion to provide food, cook, serve and clean up, but, our thanks go out in a most special way to Mrs. Kathy Nauman and Mrs. Shanela Cavin. I truly don't know what I would do without Mrs. Nauman. Y'all could get along better without me than you could without her, I daresay! Thanks are also due to Mr. Robert Clayton for far more than the beautiful music he and his choir and schola made. He was in the forefront of coordinating the reception itself. Many thanks to Earnie Cavin for the inspiring flag display. And, weren't those Irish Dancers just great? We are so blessed here. We have so much, so many possibilities! It's dizzying.

I was so very touched to see my sister and brother in law, former parishioners and my friends from Ohio, whom I know since my very early time in seminary. How I wish my parents and grandparents were there with me!

But, most of all, I can't tell you how much you all mean to me. Pastors are the most fortunate of men. Even without the blessings of married life, our children, our families continue to grow in our love for God and for one another, my children and my friends.

Father Magiera
