October 2 is Life Chain Sunday: October is Respect Life Month and the annual Life Chain takes place on the first Sunday of October. It is held in west Little Rock at the intersection of Bowman and Chenal Parkway. We have our usual assignment of standing on the sidewalk in front of Centennial Bank facing Bowman. We are allowed to park our cars in the bank parking lot. The event begins at 2:00 pm and ends at 3:00 pm. Signs are available to hold as you silently pray the rosary or other prayers for an end to abortion. If you have never attended, we encourage you to come out and publicly make a stand against the innocent killing of babies.

Faith Formation Class at Immaculate Conception Church. Please join Marlana Grant and Ramona Bourdo this September as they discuss “How to Listen when God is Speaking/ A Guide for Modern Day Catholics” by Fr. Mitch Pacwa, SJ. Contact person: Ramona Bourdo at 831-5040.

Priestly Fall Absences: Fr. Orłowski will be away from September 18 through October 13 to sub in Tulsa, visit his mother and sub in Scranton. Fr. Magiera leaves October 17 for the FSSP Fall meeting and will return October 20. Fr. Orłowski then leaves again on October 20 to return October 25. Fr. Magiera then leaves again to baptize a baby out of state, but will return October 31. Mass cancellations, if any, will be announced with ample notice, but Mass intentions will be honored as scheduled. Then, after all of that, at some point Fr. Magiera has to make his yearly retreat.

Asking all of you again: Service to your community can take forms other than that of making monetary contributions. Yes, these are needed, to be sure, but there is another way Father mentions every once in a while, namely “Stewardship in Action.” Doing is just as important as giving. What will happen one day when Sung Masses don’t happen, simply because there is no one to do the singing? Father Magiera can’t be in the choir loft for quite a while, but I bet a few of you can be. Men are needed for the schola and ladies of all ages for the choir. Well??

Please Remember these Prayer Intentions:

For the living: June Gardner (health), Gary Crouch (health), Members of the Kozłowski families, Jolanta Widuch, Linda Barry (health), Crawford Family, Peter Orłowski Family, Penny Witter (health), Gail Demerest (health), Eric Couron Family (Special Intention), Gerald Spencer (health), Leonard Bradberry (health).

And for the dead: John Andrew Makovec, Sue Whitehead, Janet Sorrels, David Crockett, Shawn Trusty, Donald Greer, Gail Brooks, Patrick W. Kordsmeier, Scott Shiplett, James Steven Moore, Vergie Crimmins, Bill Barry, John Tully, Ron Prince, Lenora Price, Dorothy Lochner, Myrtle Powers, Billy-Joe Campbell, James Honeycutt, Sandra Friedl, Isadore L. Sonnier, Jean Murry, Bonnie McDonald, Marie Honeycutt, Catherine Sparks, Carolyn Bruich, Earl Bradberry, Fr. Venantius Preske, Joseph Max Bulmanski, Rachel Taylor, Betty-Jo Clayton.

Dear Community Members,

Well, we got through our first Potluck of the season without a hitch. Thank you for your understanding about the meeting not taking place. Some folks, though, apparently didn't "get the memo." We did send out a community-wide email about it, in addition to my mentioning it in my letter and from the pulpit. Guess this means that there are still some community members NOT on our email list. If you think you are one of those, please contact us and we'll fix the problem.

Boy, did I feel like an absolute fool last Sunday! When it comes to second collections, our main "trigger" is the list we receive from the diocese. Those collections considered "in house" really have no such trigger. Now, we all know that the last Sunday of the month is the second collection for the building fund, but, unfortunately, there was no alarm bell or trigger for last Sunday's OLGs Seminary Collection. True, I don't have envelopes, else I might have noticed the envelope in my box. Still I have to take the fall for this omission. As Chaplain, the buck must always stop at my desk. This is something I learned a long time ago when I was on the stage. Even though there's a "prop" table which has to be checked by the prop manager and checked again by the stage manager, a performer is still responsible for his own prop. Still, even though there was this glaring omission, many of you still used your special envelopes and made contributions anyway. So far, a total of $585 was collected for the seminary. Tell you what – I'll hold off on writing the check to the seminary and if any more of you wish to make contributions this coming Sunday (or if you're reading this on Sunday, today) or next Sunday, that would be fine and I'm sure the Seminary will be most grateful.

And, to add to the confusion, there's also a separate second collection scheduled for Sunday, today, which is called the "Catechetical Sunday Collection." Actually, the confusion will be all mine when I go to enter the data in the system on Monday.

We now begin our series of absences, that is, the time when either Father Orłowski or I will be absent. Father left Friday to sub for Fr. Define in Tulsa, He then travels to Scranton, PA to sub for Fr. Zapeda. So I'll be holding down the fort till the end of the month. Just you and me.

On 14 September, the Exaltation of the Holy Cross, Pope Benedict XVI's Motu Proprio Summorum Pontificum went into effect. This day means a great deal to you and to me. Thank God for Pope Benedict, my children and my friends.

Father Magiera
