WELCOME visitors! St. Edmund Campion missals/hymnals are available in the back of the church. At the traditional Mass, Holy Communion is received on the tongue, and kneeling, if possible. There is no need to respond 'Amen'. Chapel veils are available to borrow in the foyer of the church. If you would like to register to join the community, fill out a census form, found on the table in the back of the church, and turn in to Fr. Orłowski.*

Propers for Today's Mass: Propers for the 5th Sunday after Easter begin on about page 283 of the Campion Missal/Hymnal.

Packing the Sacred Objects: After 10:45am Mass we are going to pack the sacred objects and bring them to Cabot. This will also provide a chance to see the new location and how things are progressing there and perhaps how you can help. There are many

Next Sunday, May 28th:

New Location: 106 Pin Oak Dr., Cabot, AR 72023.

New Mass Times: Sunday: 8am Low Mass, 10:15am Rosary, 10:45am Sung Mass.

Fr. Saguto Visiting: the District Superior will be in Cabot. You will be able to visit with him after both of the Masses.

May Crowning: The Crowning of Mary is to be held for children prior to the 10:45am Mass. Children are asked to meet in the vestibule, in order to process up and place flowers by the Altar of Mary. The First Communicants to be are all encouraged to participate in the crowning ceremony.

Bishop to Name Us a Parish & Confirmations: Bishop Anthony Taylor is coming on Saturday, June 24th to turn our community into a parish! The ceremony and Mass will be at about 4pm. He has to lock this time down and is willing to try to make it a little earlier. The Bishop has asked that Confirmation be at that time on June 24th, not on June 11th. This is a great relief considering the crowded schedule in the new place. Today is the last Confirmation class. The retreat is scheduled for this Saturday, May 27th at our new location in Cabot. We will start off with Mass at 9am and the retreat will go to 3pm.

First Communion and First Confession: First Communicants need to be tested before June 11th. The child needs to receive his First Confession before Sunday, June 18th First Communion Day. I will be happy to answer any parents' questions.

Mass Intentions are needed by Fr. Orłowski.

The Liturgical Year by Dom Prosper Gueranger, excerpt from Easter

“With this, for the present, we take leave of the lessons taught us by the Resurrection of Jesus; the rest we reserve for the humble commentary we shall have to make on the Liturgy of the holy season. We shall then see, more and more clearly, not only our duty of imitating our divine Master’s Resurrection, but the significance of this grandest Mystery of the Man-God. Easter,—with its three admirable manifestations of divine love and power, the Resurrection, the Ascension, and the Descent of the Holy Ghost,— yes, Easter is the perfection of the work of our Redemption. Everything, both in the order of time and in the workings of the Liturgy, has been a preparation for Easter. The four thousand years that followed the promise made by God to our First Parents, were crowned by the event that we are now to celebrate. All that the Church has been doing for us from the very commencement of Advent, had this same glorious event in view; and now that we have come to it, our expectations are more than realized, and the power and wisdom of God are brought before us so vividly, that our former knowledge of them seems nothing in comparison with our present appreciation and love of them. The Angels themselves are dazzled by the grand Mystery, as the Church tells us in one of her Easter Hymns, where she says: ‘The Angels gaze with wonder on the change wrought in mankind: it was flesh that sinned, and now Flesh taketh all sin away, and the God that reigns is the God made Flesh.’”

“Eastertide, too, belongs to what is called the Illuminative Life; nay, it is the most important part of that life, for it not only manifests, as the last four seasons of the Liturgical year have done, the humiliations and the sufferings of the Man-God: it shows Him to us in all His grand glory; it gives us to see Him expressing in His own sacred Humanity, the highest degree of the creature’s transformation into his God. The Coming of the Holy Ghost will bring additional brightness to this Illumination; it shows us the relations that exist between the soul and the Third Person of the Blessed Trinity. And here we see the way and the progress of a faithful soul. She was made an adopted child of the Heavenly Father; she was initiated into all the duties and mysteries of her high vocation, by the lessons and examples of the Incarnate Word; she was perfected, by the visit and indwelling of the Holy Ghost. From this there result those several Christian exercises, which produce within her an imitation of her divine Model, amid prepare her for that Union, to which she is invited by Him, who ‘gave to them that received Him, power to be made sons of God,’ by a birth that is ‘not of blood, nor of the flesh, but of God.’” [St. John, i. 12,13]”
