Commitment Weekend 2019 Annual Catholic Appeal

“AS I HAVE DONE FOR YOU, YOU SHOULD ALSO DO”

Turn away from sin and be faithful to the Gospel. During this time of Lent we make every effort to distance ourselves from sin and more aggressively live out the Gospel in our daily lives.

As recipients of God’s love and compassion, we fervently make our way through life expressing our gratitude for Christ’s enduring presence and forgiveness. As Disciples of Christ, we demonstrate our gratitude through acts of love, compassion and kindness to others. One way we do this, is through our support of the Annual Catholic Appeal.

The theme of the 2019 Annual Catholic Appeal is, “As I have done for you, you should also do.” Those words recall the act of service Jesus performed for His Disciples on the night before He died. He took the role of the servant and washed their feet, and then asked them to follow His example by doing the same for others. Jesus wanted the Disciples to understand the importance of humble service and that to glorify God means to respond to the needs of others.

As believers and followers of Our Lord, let us realize the true meaning of serving the least among us. Please give generously to this year’s Annual Catholic Appeal.

RESURRECTION PARISH 50TH ANNIVERSARY

EASTER RENEWAL WEEK

REV. SIMEON GALLAGHER, OFM, CAP A SPIRITUALITY FOR RELATIONSHIPS

Saturday and Sunday, April 27-28
Fr. Gallagher preaches at all Masses.

Monday, April 29 – Thursday, May 2
8:30 a.m. Mass & Brief Talk / 7:00 p.m. Renewal Talk

The core experience of all life is expressed in relationships. Relationship defines the inner life of the Trinity itself; and it is within relationships that we experience the greatest joys and most bitter disappointments of life. Our Easter Renewal will focus on fundamental aspects of spiritual development as reflected through the lens of relationships:

Faith, Prayer, Conversion, and Community

All four are intricately linked one to the other. The end result of this Parish Mission will be a spirituality that will enable us to recognize God in each other.

LITURGY

Virtual Workshop Proclaimers of the Word and ALL who are interested

Designed specifically for lectors and those who proclaim God's Word, these workshops will help participants to develop their public speaking skills as they become more familiar with the Lectionary:

Literary Genres in the Lectionary: Proclaiming in Different Forms of Scripture

April 9, 2019 - 7:30 - 9:00 pm ET

Through the internet, our presenter will use several multimedia components at once, including short films, presentation slides, chat boxes, handouts/downloads, and polls, engaging participants from many parts of the country virtually – as we here at Resurrection join in the conversation. So that we'll have plenty of space and handouts for all who wish to participate, please contact Ruth Sanders to sign up, rsanders@resurrectionde.org

PARISH LIFE

Pastoral Council Nominations will be taken after all Masses this weekend.

Elections for Stewards and Trustees on Pastoral Council will be held in May. This is a wonderful opportunity to help shape the future of Resurrection Parish as we approach our 50th Anniversary. Pastoral Council advises Fr. Bill and helps address pastoral needs in the parish.

All parishioners eighteen and older are eligible. There will be a table in the Gathering Space where you can obtain information and nomination forms. Self nomination is encouraged. Please stop by the nominations table to get more information or talk with your Steward on Pastoral Council.

TAKING IT HOME

As we approach the last days of Lent, we contemplate this gracious act of forgiveness that even in our sin God did not abandon us, but gave us Jesus, who on the cross loved us until death so that we might have new life. Deacon John

PALM SUNDAY GOSPEL - LUKE 23: 1 - 49

The elders of the people, chief priests and scribes, arose and brought Jesus before Pilate. They brought charges against him, saying, "We found this man misleading our people; he opposes the payment of taxes to Caesar and maintains that he is the Christ, a king."

Pilate asked him, "Are you the king of the Jews?"

He said to him in reply, "You say so."

Pilate then addressed the chief priests and the crowds, "I find this man not guilty."

But they were adamant and said, "He is inciting the people with his teaching throughout all Judea, from Galilee where he began even to here."

On hearing this Pilate asked if the man was a Galilean; and upon learning that he was under Herod's jurisdiction, he sent him to Herod who was in Jerusalem at that time. Herod was very glad to see Jesus; he had been wanting to see him for a long time, for he had heard about him and had been hoping to see him perform some sign. He questioned him at length, but he gave him no answer.

The chief priests and scribes, meanwhile, stood by accusing him harshly. Herod and his soldiers treated him contemptuously and mocked him, and after clothing him in resplendent garb, he sent him back to Pilate. Herod and Pilate became friends that very day, even though they had been enemies formerly.

Pilate then summoned the chief priests, the rulers, and the people and said to them, "You brought this man to me and accused him of inciting the people to revolt.

I have conducted my investigation in your presence and have not found this man guilty of the charges you have brought against him, nor did Herod, for he sent him back to us. So no capital crime has been committed by him. Therefore I shall have him flogged and then release him."

But all together they shouted out, "Away with this man! Release Barabbas to us."

—Now Barabbas had been imprisoned for a rebellion that had taken place in the city and for murder.—Again Pilate addressed them, still wishing to release Jesus, but they continued their shouting, "Crucify him! Crucify him!"

Pilate addressed them a third time, "What evil has this man done? I found him guilty of no capital crime. Therefore I shall have him flogged and then release him."

With loud shouts, however, they persisted in calling for his crucifixion, and their voices prevailed. The verdict of Pilate was that their demand should be granted. So he released the man who had been imprisoned for rebellion and murder, for whom they asked, and he handed Jesus over to them to deal with as they wished. As they led him away they took hold of a certain Simon, a Cyrenian, who was coming in from the country; and after laying the cross on him, they made him carry it behind Jesus.

A large crowd of people followed Jesus, including many women who mourned and lamented him. Jesus turned to them and said, "Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for me; weep instead for yourselves and for your children for indeed, the days are coming when people will say, 'Blessed are the barren, the wombs that never bore and the breasts that never nursed.' At that time people will say to the mountains, 'Fall upon us!' and to the hills, 'Cover us!' for if these things are done when the wood is green what will happen when it is dry?"

Now two others, both criminals, were led away with him to be executed. When they came to the place called the Skull, they on his right, the other on his left. Then Jesus said, "Father, forgive them, they know not what they do."

crucified him and the criminals there, one on his right, the other on his left. Then Jesus said, "Father, forgive them, they know not what they do."

They divided his garments by casting lots. The people stood by and watched; the rulers, meanwhile, sneered at him and said, "He saved others, let him save himself if he is the chosen one, the Christ of God."

Even the soldiers jeered at him. As they approached to offer him wine they called out, "If you are King of the Jews, save yourself."

Above him there was an inscription that read, "This is the King of the Jews."

Now one of the criminals hanging there reviled Jesus, saying, "Are you not the Christ? Save yourself and us." The other, however, rebuking him, said in reply, "Have you no fear of God, for you are subject to the same condemnation? And indeed, we have been condemned justly, for the sentence we received corresponds to our crimes, but this man has done nothing criminal."

Then he said, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom."

He replied to him, "Amen, I say to you, today you will be with me in Paradise."

It was now about noon and darkness came over the whole land until three in the afternoon because of an eclipse of the sun. Then the veil of the temple was torn down the middle.

Jesus cried out in a loud voice, "Father, into your hands I commend my spirit"; and when he had said this he breathed his last.

The centurion who witnessed what had happened glorified God and said, "This man was innocent beyond doubt."

When all the people who had gathered for this spectacle saw what had happened, they returned home beating their breasts; but all his acquaintances stood at a distance, including the women who had followed him from Galilee and saw these events.

Q. Why is it Peter, the chosen leader of the disciples, who denies knowing Jesus?

Q. Why do the gospels go into such detail about the death of Jesus?

Q. Why were the beliefs of early Christianity confronting to the Greeks and Romans?
