NOTES FROM FR. CARL.....

This weekend across the Diocese is Stewardship Weekend. It is a time where we can reflect on the generosity of our loving God to us and how, through prayer, service, and sharing we return our gratitude. As our gospel states, "Zeal for your house will consume me". Do we have a zeal for our parish? A zeal that wants us to build and grow the wonderful parishes of Holy Name of Mary and Corpus Christi? I sure hope and pray this is so. Please prayerfully ask God how you are to be a part of this mission through prayer, service and sharing.

Blessings, Fr. Carl

FROM THE DEACON'S DESK.....

At our last men's ministry meeting our topic was virtuous living. There were a few scripture references on this as well as one from the Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC 1804-1811) which detailed "cardinal virtues". The English word cardinal comes from the Latin word cardo, which means "hinge." All other virtues hinge on these four principals: prudence-right reason & action, justice-giving proper due to God & neighbor, fortitude-facing trials without fear, and temperance-moderation & discretion of earthly pleasures. In our group there are both pre & post Vatican II guys and none of us could remember (or maybe we just forgot) learning about these in catechism class. That's why lifelong learning is so important. Check out opportunities like 'Men's Ministry' or the 'Adult Catechism Class'. Learn more about these and others at the Stewardship Fair Nov. 15th. Get involved & grow in your faith!

God bless, Deacon Ray
