NOTES FROM FR. CARL.....

I pray everyone had a safe and joy filled Christmas. This weekend is the feast of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph. May we be grateful for this wonderful example of family and what was accomplished through them. We are part of this family, this Christian family, and it is through this family that we can find the graces and strength to handle whatever comes our way. As brothers and sisters in this family, let us always be concerned for each other and love each other as we have been commanded to do.

Have a Happy and Blessed New Year! Fr. Carl

FROM THE DEACON'S DESK.....

I hope you all had a very merry Christmas and had the opportunity to spend some time with family. Today we celebrate the Holy Family, Jesus, Mary & Joseph. In the gospel we hear about two Jewish customs; the mother's purification and the consecration of the first born son. During this season we certainly celebrate many customs; old and new with our families. Families take on many different looks these days; whether a traditional family, a blended family, an adopted family or just your family of friends. The important thing is to spend the precious time we have with the ones we love. God Bless! Deacon Ray
