NOTES FROM FR. CARL.....

This weekend is the 25th Sunday in Ordinary Time. We celebrate Catechetical Sunday which is a time to recommit ourselves to learning and sharing our faith. The theme this year is "Safeguarding the Dignity of Every Human Person". In our troubled world this theme is very appropriate. Let us pray for and through our actions show that every human person has dignity from the moment of conception to natural death.

As our Pope arrives in the United States this next week let us also pray for safety and joy filled days he continues to lead us as our shepherd here on earth.

Have a blessed week! Fr. Carl

FROM THE DEACON'S DESK.....

Pride is one of those words with double meanings. It's great to take pride in your high school or college football team, it's great to take pride in your work; yet pride is one of the seven deadly sins! The type of pride we have to guard against is the type of pride shown by the disciples in the Gospel today. They argued about who is the greatest. I think we are all guilty of this to some degree at some point in our lives; whether overtly or covertly. Jesus set his disciples straight (and us as well) by wrapping his arms around a child. Let us follow Jesus example by putting others ahead of ourselves, especially the least among us. Don't forget to hug those kiddos and tell them how proud you are of them and how much they mean to you!

God bless, Deacon Ray
