NOTES FROM FR. CARL.....

What spring like weather we have had! I hope that you have had a chance to get outside to enjoy it!

This week we enter into the Holiest of weeks in our Catholic faith. As we hear the gospels of this journey, the hope of Palm Sunday, the agony in the garden, the betrayal, the Last Supper, Crucifixion, the grief of Jesus dying on the cross and the ultimate joy of Easter, let us be present to those emotions within us. It is through this journey that we can truly experience the joy of Easter.

Have a Blessed Holy Week, Fr. Carl

FROM THE DEACON'S DESK.....

Passion is described as an intense emotion. Someone with great passion for something gives 100% for their cause. Today we celebrate "Passion Sunday". We recount how Jesus gave everything he had, his own very life for you and me. As we enter into this most holy week of our Christian faith, let us pause to consider Jesus' great sacrifice. May the liturgies draw us closer to Christ as we recall His last supper, His washing of the disciple's feet, His suffering on the road to Calvary and His glorious Resurrection. May His passion for us inspire our passion for Him! Have a blessed Holy Week, Deacon Ray
