NOTES FROM FR. CARL.....

I hope you are enjoying the summer weather and beautiful days we have been having in Door County! This past week was the International Convention for Barbershop singing. I was able to see much of it on Webcast. What a great competition! It brings back many fond memories of when the Schmitt Brothers sang and I competed in the Chorus competition.

This weekend we have a very well-known gospel. It is the story of the Good Samaritan. We are all called to act as the Good Samaritan did by going the extra mile to help our fellow man. It may be inconvenient and difficult but it is what we are called to do. If all helped those in need what an even more wonderful world this would be.

Have a blessed week! Fr. Carl

What fiction author would you recommend for Catholics today?

Recently I've been reading a lot of books by an author named Michael O'Brien. He writes on a series of topics. This past year I read Sophia House, Father Elijah, and Elijah in Jerusalem. I am currently working on Island of the World. The Catholic undertones of his books give the Catholic soul some time to breathe from the current popular books in the Catholic arena. I recommend good Catholic fiction to any reader who would like to work on his or her spiritual imagination and grow in love with their faith at the same time.

Edge and Life Teen

Middle & High School Religious Education

Mark your calendars now! Thursday, August 11th at St. Joseph (social hall) starting at 5:30pm is our annual mission trip Stockholder's dinner. I'm telling you, you don't want to miss this dinner. It's FREE and it's our biggest adult and youth event of the year! Even if you were unable to financially support the mission trip, you are still welcome! If you want to learn about our young Church, the dinner is a PERFECT opportunity for you to see how not just mission trips, but how Life Teen and Edge has impacted their lives.

We are just a few short weeks away from our middle school mission trip. This will be our 4th annual mission trip, our first to Milwaukee (we've gone to Appleton the past 3 years). Middle schoolers who are willing to give up a week of their lives to serve others amaze me. They aren't really old enough to work, so they really are giving up a week of fun to help those in need. Please pray that they have open hearts and minds to what God wants to reveal.
