Packers fan with months to live has wish granted

BY SAM LUCERO | THE COMPASS

ALLOUEZ — It was a depressing day for David Marosek last April. He had been battling stage 4 rectal cancer since July 2016 and the treatment seemed to be working. "As of August of last year I thought I was in the clear," he said.

But then something changed. It was during a visit to his oncologist five months ago that Marosek learned the cancer had returned, spreading into his lungs and spine.

"I was told that it was terminal and they gave me like six months to a year" to live, he told The Compass in a telephone interview from his Oshkosh apartment. Marosek traveled to Milwaukee for a second opinion, which concluded the same findings. Rather than begin new treatments he chose to enter hospice.

"I've been in hospice now for a few months," he said. With the assistance of Aurora at Home Hospice, Marosek receives medical care and home visits from hospice staff, including Jayne Syrjamaki, Aurora at Home volunteer coordinator.

SAM LUCERO | THE COMPASS

When hospice staff met Marosek in July, they posed a question to him: "If you had one wish, what would it be?" It's part of the hospice program's "Drop in the Bucket" initiative to grant small wishes to patients. The wish was then turned over to Syrjamaki. "He said he had always wanted to go to a Packer game," she said.

"I put out a message to a lot of businesses in the Oshkosh area that I was in need of tickets for a hospice patient to make his last wish come true," she said.

Syrjamaki waited for weeks, but got no replies. However, she was determined to fulfill Marosek's last wish because she could relate to his situation.

Syrjamaki decided to contact the Diocese of Green Bay.

FRANKLY, FRANCIS

Dear Brothers and Sisters,
In our catechesis on the Ten Commandments, we have been reflecting on the third commandment: to keep holy the Lord's Day. In the version of the Decalogue found in the Book of Deuteronomy, the command to rest on the Sabbath is linked to the memory of Israel's liberation from the slavery of Egypt. Slaves, as we know, cannot rest. In our own day, so many of our brothers and sisters suffer various forms of enslavement, injustice and inner torment; they long for rest and freedom. Yet, as the example of the martyrs shows us, even in the darkest prisons, it is possible to experience profound interior freedom and repose. True freedom is more than choice. It is liberation from the bondage of selfishness, sin and lovelessness; from such slavery there can be no rest. As Christians, we read, and observe, the third commandment in the light of Christ's coming.

Deacon's medal, lost for 37 years, found on Abbey grounds

BY JEFF KUROWSKI | THE COMPASS

ALLOUEZ — Deacon David Parker gazed at the small, four-way scapular medal in the palm of his hand. He had forgotten about it; understandable considering he had not seen it since the fall of 1981.

"It's very sentimental. It's very cool," he said. "It looks like it's been in the ground for 37 years.

I'm surprised there is this much left of it."

Deacon Parker lost the medal during a football game on the St. Norbert Abbey grounds only weeks after he entered the Norbertine Order at age 21. The chain survived the game, but the medal had been missing until Mike Counter recently discovered it.

Counter, director of media relations at St. Norbert College, has been metal detecting on the St. Norbert Abbey grounds for a special project in cooperation with the Norbertines.

"I didn't find a lot of medals out there, maybe three or four," said Counter. "I've spent 50 to 60 hours so far. I'm waiting for the crops to be removed out of the field, so I can get down by where Minahan Stadium used to be located."

Our full story appears in the Sept. 14 issue.

5 THINGS YOU SHOULD KNOW

Guardian angels

PATRICIA KASTEN | THE COMPASS

- 1 On Oct. 2 we celebrate the Memorial of the Guardian Angels.
- 2 In 1608, Pope Paul V set a specific feast day honoring guardian angels. The feast became part of the universal church calendar under Pope Clement X (1670-76).
- 3 The church teaches that each of us has an angel, during our entire life, "as protector and shepherd" (Catechism of the Catholic Church, n. 336).
- 4 Church teaching on guardian angels traces back to Matthew's Gospel (18:10), where Jesus says that the guardian angels of children always look upon the face of God.
- 5 In the 19th century, St. John of Vianney, a French priest, advised: "If you find it impossible to pray, hide behind your good angel and charge him to pray in your stead."

Disciples on the Way: An update

It is hard to believe that it has been four years since we began our journey on the mission map of discipleship formation! In 2014, we began with two years of formation in prayer and holiness — in learning more about prayer and meditation and increasing prayer in our homes and parishes. This foundation tilled the soil so that our efforts in discipleship could take root in our hearts, homes and communities.

BISHOP'S CORNER

In 2016, we began the formation process to "Discover Jesus" and "Follow Jesus" for the leadership of the diocese, including diocesan staff, pastors, deacons and school administrators. We also welcomed key volunteers from our parishes to attend a series of seminars throughout the diocese, including parish council members, boards of education and other key volunteer roles.

At this time, over 3,000 leaders have gone through training and formation experiences in the last two years through Discipleship Seminars I and II followed by a "Discover Jesus" process called "Alpha." In the coming years, Alpha will be presented to more and more people in your parish, as it is the first step (alpha) in beginning or deepening our relationship with Jesus Christ. I will be sharing much more about these experiences in a series of columns that I will write over the next year. Through these columns, I hope to give you a high-level understanding of all that is going on in this wonderful diocese.

In 2018-20, on the leadership level, through "Worship Jesus," we will strive to understand the importance of the Mass and reclaiming Sunday as the center of our life as disciples. In these upcoming years we will, with your invaluable assistance and participation, implement simple ways to enhance our Sunday experience at Mass by making a few strategic and faithful improvements in sacred music, preaching, welcome and hospitality.

God willing, in 2020-2022 we will be learning more about how to "Share Jesus" and to witness to our faith by inviting others to follow the Lord in and through our parish communities. We will also learn how to impact our communities with the Good News through witness and especially service by intentionally contributing as a faith community to the life of the communities where we are located.

The diocesan staff has been working very hard to bring the new vision and mission statement, which you will see below, to life at the diocesan level and assist our parishes in bringing missionary discipleship forward to all those in our communities.

The entire column appears in our Sept. 7 issue.

Children receive a "blessing of the backpacks" from Fr. Dennis Bergsbaken at St. Margaret Mary Church in Neenah on Sept. 3. The parish prayed over the children for a successful, safe and enlightening school year, and each child received a small backpack tag featuring St. Thomas Aquinas, the patron saint of students and universities.

The Parish Connection

St. John Bosco School is shaping future leaders by providing academic excellence in a caring 4K-8 Catholic environment where God's gifts are nurtured and where faith is put into action.

St. John Bosco

October 2018

From the Principal

It's beginning to look a lot like . . . autumn in Door County; a beautiful time of year. It's also an exciting time as we welcome our students back to school and get into our academic routine. St. John Bosco is continuing to make strides to ensure a quality education for years to come. What a great time to be a Bosco Bobcat!

Autumn also means our Annual School Fund Drive kicks off helping with our overall budget and our continued progress toward excellence. Last year we fell short of our ASFD by $20,000 and it has certainly been felt as we have moved into the '18 - '19 school year. The campaign this year is focused on 4 items: competitive wages to recruit and retain teachers, tuition assistance for families in need; continued upgrades to our STEM program and general operations.

Among our many programs, we are proud to offer daily Spanish courses for students in fifth through eighth grade; accelerated math courses, a very effective balanced literacy program, use of laptops and iPads for all students; as well as athletics, arts, band, musicals, math team and student council.

For the first time in the history of the Annual School Fund Drive, the school has received a generous match from two local families. The families will match up to $25,000 of any donations before November 15th. "We are so thankful for these two gracious families and their generous match. We hope that it encourages you to donate and help recognize the full potential of this match".

Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions about the Annual School Fund Drive, 920 743-4144. Every donation directly impacts our students. St. John Bosco School is shaping future leaders by providing academic excellence in a caring 4K - 8 Catholic environment where God's gifts are nurtured and where faith is put into action.

Blessing of the Animals

Many of us have a special bond with our pets. St. John Bosco School students celebrated the feast of St. Francis of Assisi on October 4 by bringing their pets and stuffed animals to school for a special blessing. Mrs. Isaksen even brought her horse. We gathered outside prior to the start of our school day. Thanks to Fr. Tony for blessing our favorites of God's creatures!

Request for Veterans' Names

Since 2015, our students have been sending appreciation letters to Veterans for Veterans Day. We are again requesting that if any of our parishioners have a family member who is a veteran, and wouldn't mind receiving a letter from our students, please contact our school office with their names and addresses. We appreciate your help with this community outreach project.

4K Field Trip to Otumba Park

Mrs. Kacmarynski took her 4K class to Otumba Park on Wednesday, September 26th, for their Falling Leaves field trip. They collected God's gorgeous foliage that they used for creating beautiful scenes by tracing their arms and fingers for the trees.

STEM Robotics Field Trip

Students in grades 5-8 went on a field trip to see robotics in action on October 4th. They saw Door County Medical Center's new da Vinci Surgical Robot and visited the Olson Farm to see how robotics are used in the agricultural setting. Pictures and more information will be available in our November issue.

Basketball update

The 4th & 5th grade girls basketball team is combined this year. We have 10 athletes being coached by Mr. Travis Olson. The girls have a record of 3-2. Come cheer on the girls at their next home game on October 11 at 5:00pm. Go Bobcats!

Fire Prevention Presentation

The Sturgeon Bay Fire Department visited students in Grades 4K-5 on Friday, September 28. Students watched a DVD and learned about fire safety and emergency techniques during their Fire Prevention Presentation.

Project Lead the Way Update

5th graders are finishing up building a robot that moves on three wheels. They have been presented with a challenge that requires them to design a robot that will successfully navigate through a maze and move a minimum of 3 blocks into a collection zone in 2 minutes or less. The vehicle must avoid red zones in the field and if it stops on a red zone they will have to pick up the vehicle and start over. They are following the design process to design and build this robot making changes as they go. Some students have already tested the robot in the maze and are having so much fun making changes as they realize what works and doesn't work.

6th graders are wrapping up 3D objects and how to sketch, measure, dimension and calculate area, surface area and volume. Very soon we will take it to the computer and digitize objects using sketching software.

7th and 8th graders are building mechanisms and learning about gear ratios. We are finishing up this project and getting ready to build a windmill where they will have to determine the best mechanism to use to get the job done.

PLTW has been an amazing addition to the classroom and our students are getting an engaging, project-based learning experience. We are so proud of their growth as they move away from a lecture-based classroom to a student-led learning environment. Watching them build their confidence and develop the ability to think critically and for themselves has been amazing!

Grandparents/Grand Friends Day

Grandparents and Grand Friends Day was celebrated on September 12. Grandparents and other older people are very special in children's lives, so SJB wanted to thank them. They joined us for Mass at 8:20am, had a donut reception, and toured the school.
