The Rev. Billy Graham tells of a time early in his ministry when he arrived in a small town to preach a revival meeting. Wanting to mail a letter he asked a young man where the post office was. When the boy had told him, Dr. Graham thanked him and said, “If you’ll come to the church this evening, you can hear me give directions on how to get to heaven. “I don’t think I’ll be there,” the boy replied. “You don’t even know how to get to the post office.”

How can Easter impact your marriage? After the sacrifice of Lent and the gloom of Holy Week, we can sometimes arrive at Easter like someone who has finished a dreaded chore, and we resume regularly scheduled life. However, if this is our approach, we miss the gift of Easter can be for our marriages.

The first message of the Resurrection is “Don’t be afraid!” This phrase is proclaimed to all who approach the empty tomb, and to us as married people as well. We should not be afraid:

- ...of serious illness, financial or relationship problems. He has conquered even death, so He can bring good out of any evil we face.
 - ...of facing our own or our spouse’s sin. He loved his disciples after they abandoned him. He can help us love each other with that same love.
- *****

We don’t stop laughing because we grow old; we grow old because we stop laughing.
