Marriage Minute

We spend a good percentage of our lives working out practical household details: Who is driving? How do we fix that? This weekend, the disciples are dealing with a dispute in the community, and like us, they came up with a very practical solution. Our faith is deep and rich, but sometimes, the Holy Spirit answers our prayers with simple problem solving. Could your marriage use some similar strategies?

- A means of communicating feelings in a safe way that will bring you closer.
 - A powerful way to break a habit of criticism.
 - A process to heal hurts quickly and effectively (without making them worse).
 - A way to make decisions while preserving a tender atmosphere.

A nearsighted minister glanced at the note that Mrs. Edwards had sent to him by an usher.

The note read: “Phil Edwards having gone to sea, his wife desires the prayers of the congregation for his safety.

The minister failed to observe the punctuation, however, and surprised the congregation when he read aloud, “Phl Edwards, having gone to see his wife, desires the prayers of the congregation for his safety.”
