FROM FR. JOE...

Over the last 8-9 months, I've written a few times about Frassati House—a new apostolate starting here in St. André's Parish, bringing young Catholic men and women to our community to do the work of the New Evangelization in youth and young adult ministry, adult faith formation, and retreats. I'm happy to say that the fifth parish missionary we'll be hosting this year arrives this weekend! Over the next couple of weeks, we'll be introducing you to them and the important work they'll be doing. Of course, those missionaries already here are already hard at work; a number of our junior high and high school aged members have come to the events they've planned, and I hope many of our young adult parishioners will come to enjoy the "game night" scheduled next week.

Many thanks to all of you who will take a few moments this Sunday or next to complete a census card before or after Mass. Thanks, too, to the volunteers who are helping us to wrap up this final phase of our parish census project.

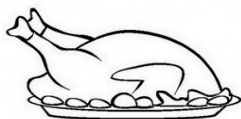

I also want to thank all of you who have taken time to share your thoughts on the parish property issues I raised in last Sunday's bulletin—in particular, the likely official closure and sale of the oratories in Lake Titus and Owls Head. Your input is a vital part of the process, and much appreciated!

A LETTER FROM OUR BISHOP

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ:

As World Mission Sunday approaches, October 18th, we recall our baptismal call to be a mission-minded people. Through our prayers and concrete acts of solidarity, the gift of faith is shared with others. This year's celebration is further enriched as we mark the 50th Anniversary of the Second Vatican Council's Decree on the Missionary Activity of the Church (Ad Gentes). The pilgrim Church on earth is missionary by its very nature.

In his message for World Mission Sunday, Pope Francis writes, "Mission is part of the 'grammar' of faith, something essential for those who listen to the voice of the Spirit who whispers 'Come' and 'Go forth.' Those who follow Christ cannot fail to be missionaries..." All of us are called to be on mission.

On World Mission Sunday, our diocesan family joins our sisters and brothers around the world. Responding to the voice of the Spirit, we connect with our world on mission: ...with Africa, where six million children receive an education in some 16,000 Church-run elementary schools ...with Asia, where those who are sick are provided with loving care at 5,000 Catholic hospitals and small clinics ...with the Americas, where catechists travel to remote areas to bring the Good News of God's great love to families ...with Oceania, where young men are supported in their studies for the priesthood, to bring the Lord's healing hope and peace to those in need ...and with Europe, where new churches are being built to welcome faith communities, renewed after years of persecution.

Your financial assistance on World Mission Sunday, offered in the collection for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, supports such efforts in the many young mission dioceses in our world, reaching the poorest communities with a message of hope and healing, mercy and peace. Pope Francis emphasizes that "mission is a passion for Jesus and at the same time a passion for his people." Let us have that same passion this World Mission Sunday, as we share the joy of the Gospel with generous hearts!

Thank you for your generous support to this year's Mission Appeal.

Faithfully yours in Christ,
Most Reverend Terry R. LaValley
Bishop of Ogdensburg

2ND COLLECTION THIS WEEKEND

This weekend our parish will celebrate World Mission Sunday. Your ongoing support of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith is vital to the missionaries serving in 1,150 dioceses throughout Asia, Africa, parts of Latin America and Europe, and on the Islands of the Pacific. Your generosity makes it possible for local priests, religious, and catechists to reach out to communities, families and children in desperate need, bringing the light of Christ to the darkest of circumstances. Please keep the Missions in your daily prayers. Please come prepared next weekend to give generously in the collection for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith. For more information, please visit www.OneFamilyinMission.org.

Sunday, November 15th
11:00am Mass

Check out the Media Racks...

CHECK IT OUT! New items are being added to the media racks all the time. In addition to popular periodicals, you will find devotional material to help you with your private prayer life. There are some copies of the Catholic Yearbook, made possible by our local funeral directors, near the racks in each church. The yearbook contains prayers as well as inspirational and educational articles and stories. We will replenish as long as supplies last.

A GREAT CD: Blessed Pier Giorgio - Man of the Beatitudes is a new CD about a young man who enjoyed all the good things of life. But he especially found that prayer and service to others - bringing them to Christ - gave him true happiness. Listen to the story of the young man St. John Paul II called the "man of the beatitudes". He is the patron of the missionary apostolate now beginning in our parish. A great way to learn more about him and his life.

If you didn't have a chance to be counted during the door-to-door phase of our parish census, please take a moment to complete a census card before or after one of the Masses on October 17-18 or October 24-25.

On Sunday, October 18th from 11am to 2pm, St. Mary's in Ft. Covington will be holding their Annual Turkey Dinner. Menu includes: roast turkey with all the trimmings, beverages and desserts. Cost is: Adults - $9.00; Kids 12 and under - $5.00 and kids 5 and under are free. Take outs are available.

Are you interested in becoming Catholic? Or do you know someone who is?

The process of inquiry for those considering membership in the Catholic Church is ongoing here at St. André's. Whether you've still got a lot of questions, or think you might be ready to make a life-long, life-changing commitment, we'd love to have you join us! Please contact the parish office and let us know about your interest.

If you'd like to contribute to St. André's Parish electronically—one time only or monthly, either from your checking account or credit card—you can now do so directly from the parish website: st-andres.org. Thanks for your generosity!

HARVEST MASS OF THANKSGIVING

Bishop Terry R. LaValley invites all North Country farmers and their co-workers to take part in the Harvest Mass of Thanksgiving. It will be celebrated at St. Stephen's Church in Croghan on Sunday, October 25, 2015, at 2:00 p.m. Please join Bishop LaValley in giving thanks to God for a bountiful harvest, and pray for God's blessing on our hard-working North Country farmers.

PROTECTING GOD'S CHILDREN

Did you know that all volunteers and staff who work with children at St. André's Parish have had background checks and taken safe environment training? This training is also available to anyone who would like to know more about the danger signs of abuse. Protecting our children is a priority in our parish, and it's everyone's responsibility. To report abuse: If you have a complaint of suspected misconduct involving Catholic clergy, religious, employees, or volunteers, contact Terrienne Yanulavich, diocesan Victims Assistance Coordinator (518-483-3261 or terrienneyanulavich@yahoo.com) or Fr. Jay Seymour, Vicar for Pastoral Personnel (315-393-2920 ext. 1340). Making a report to the Diocese of Ogdensburg in no way means that you should not make a report to police or child protective agencies.

Inspiring and informative video programs, talks, movies, and eBooks, by some of America's best Catholic teachers, are now available to you online 24/7. Just go to FORMED.org and enter our parish code: 17a76e.

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

Parents who wish to have a child baptized should contact Rev. Joseph Giroux to make arrangements for the date and for a program of preparation. Parents are highly encouraged to make arrangements at least three months before the child is born, as the Catholic Church encourages Baptism for infants as soon as possible after birth. Adults and older children (seven years or older) interested in Baptism or entering into full communion with the Catholic Church should inquire about the program of preparation (R.C.I.A.: the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults).

SACRAMENT OF MATRIMONY

A Catholic wishing to be married in one of our churches should contact one of the priests at least six months prior to the desired date in order to begin making arrangements. A program of preparation is required. The parish should be contacted before any other plans are made—for example, the wedding reception.

SACRAMENT OF THE ANOINTING OF THE SICK

For those preparing for surgery, nursing home residents, or the homebound, contact one of the parish priests to make arrangements to be anointed. For those in the hospital (especially in the event of an emergency), ask the hospital staff to contact the priest on call.
