FROM FR. JOE...

Next Saturday is Halloween. As usual, we invite the young (and the young at heart) to stop by the the front porch of the priests' residence (Notre Dame rectory) as they make their costumed rounds on All Hallows Eve. We'll have treats for you—no tricks for us, please!

Next Sunday is the Solemnity of All Saints. This will be an especially festive day for us this year as we officially inaugurate the Frassati House apostolate here in St. André's Parish. I hope you'll take some time to read this Sunday's bulletin insert about our five parish missionaries (Katie, Lauren, Michael, Rachel, and Zachary), as well as their patron, Blessed Pier Giorgio Frassati. I also hope many of you will take some time to come to the open house next Sunday afternoon from 1:00-4:00pm. It will give you a chance to meet these fine young women and men in person as well as to see Frassati House itself (the St. John Bosco rectory). Bishop LaValley will be on hand at 4:00pm for a brief dedication and blessing of the house and the missionaries. All are welcome!

Monday, November 2, is the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed—All Souls Day. As we've done in years past, we will have a 5:30pm Mass at St. Helen's Church, followed by a candle-light procession into the cemetery with prayers for the dead who are buried there and in all of our parish cemeteries. If you've not come before, do consider coming this year: it's often a bit chilly, but rather moving and beautiful.

Since November is practically here, that means Thanksgiving is soon coming upon us, too. St. André's is again pleased to play host to the Community Thanksgiving Dinner—a longstanding tradition that reveals the best of Malone as good food and good company are provided free of charge to hundreds of our neighbors on the holiday. The organizing committee is looking for some new volunteers who are willing to help out this year (and maybe even eventually take charge of some aspects of the event when it comes time to pass the baton). The committee will be meeting this coming week. If you're interested or have questions, please contact Betty LaHart (894-4239) or Mimi Yando (483-2263).

Check out the Media Racks...

CHECK IT OUT! New items are being added to the media racks all the time. In addition to popular periodicals, you will find devotional material to help you with your private prayer life. There are some copies of the Catholic Yearbook, made possible by our local funeral directors, near the racks in each church. The yearbook contains prayers as well as inspirational and educational articles and stories. We will replenish as long as supplies last.

A GREAT CD: Blessed Pier Giorgio - Man of the Beatitudes is a new CD about a young man who enjoyed all the good things of life. But he especially found that prayer and service to others - bringing them to Christ - gave him true happiness. Listen to the story of the young man St. John Paul II called the "man of the beatitudes". He is the patron of the missionary apostolate now beginning in our parish. A great way to learn more about him and his life.

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

Parents who wish to have a child baptized should contact Rev. Joseph Giroux to make arrangements for the date and for a program of preparation. Parents are highly encouraged to make arrangements at least three months before the child is born, as the Catholic Church encourages Baptism for infants as soon as possible after birth. Adults and older children (seven years or older) interested in Baptism or entering into full communion with the Catholic Church should inquire about the program of preparation (R.C.I.A.: the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults).

SACRAMENT OF MATRIMONY

A Catholic wishing to be married in one of our churches should contact one of the priests at least six months prior to the desired date in order to begin making arrangements. A program of preparation is required. The parish should be contacted before any other plans are made—for example, the wedding reception.

SACRAMENT OF THE ANOINTING OF THE SICK

For those preparing for surgery, nursing home residents, or the homebound, contact one of the parish priests to make arrangements to be anointed. For those in the hospital (especially in the event of an emergency), ask the hospital staff to contact the priest on call.
