HOLY FAMILY SCHOOL

Since the year that the school opened its doors in September of 1989, parents have indicated the following reasons for sending their children to Holy Family School. We would like share some of them with you over the next few weeks. If you are interested in the unique education at Holy Family School, please call Mrs. Marianne Jadloos at 518-483-4443 or e mail her at hfsprincipal@hfsmalone.org.

We want our children to want to serve. Students and their families collect food for the Food Pantry in Malone, or collect items for Catholic Charities, or collect nickels and dimes for people locally and overseas who have less. Whatever they do, we hope they'll know that we serve not because of some vague notion of giving back and gratitude to some nameless entity, but because we follow the One who showed us how to give and serve by giving His life for His friends and enemies—and called us to do the same.

When the saints come marching in, they'll recognize them. We hope they'll find beauty in the Rosary, grow to love the Blessed Mother, sing as they walk in a May procession, feel connected to generations of saints, fast and abstain and know why it matters, and realize the universal nature of our Church. Maybe their hearts will leap at the smell of incense, and they'll instinctively genuflect when they enter a church. I can't wait to see them discover the richness of our faith tradition. It amazes us, whenever we travel, that the Mass we attend wherever we are, delivers the same message, gospel, theme that everyone is hearing back at home. We want our children to know that wherever they are, the message is the same. The Catholic Church is truly universal!
