WE LONG TO SEE GOD'S FACE

"Lord, this is the people that longs to see your face."

This antiphon for today's responsorial psalm offers the focus for today's readings. As we on earth celebrate the triumph of all the saints—the ones officially canonized by the Church, and the countless others who have also reached heaven—we add nothing to their glory. But we give ourselves reason to hope. We too long to see the face of God and believe that we can one day be counted among those whose robes, as John tells us in the book of Revelation, are washed "white in the blood of the Lamb."

The passage from John's First Letter offers further assurance: we are God's children who will one day see God. But today's Gospel pulls us past longing and reassurance into action. Jesus clearly tells us what we must do to be counted among the saints. We must be poor in spirit, hungry for holiness, merciful, single-hearted, and peacemakers! Then we too will see the face of God.

All Souls' Day November 2

We are called in a special way to remember "our brothers and sisters who have fallen asleep in the hope of the resurrection".
(Eucharistic Prayer II)

A book has been made available and placed at the front of the church in which you may inscribe the names of your beloved dead who have passed THIS YEAR and whom you would like to be remembered in prayer during this month.

Monday, November 2, 2015

there will be an evening Mass at 6:00 PM to commemorate the departed in a special way.
