IMPORTANT SECOND COLLECTION:

The United States Catholic Bishops and Catholic Relief Services would like to assist humanitarian relief effort that is going on in the Middle East for the people of Iraq, Gaza and Syria where refugees have fled to specific camps sponsored by our organization. Due to the fact that each Sunday through September there is already a second collection each week, I am asking that those who wish to contribute to a special collection please do so by writing a special check to SPB and in the memo place "CRS Middle East." Place this in the regular collection basket, or mail to the parish office in an envelope. Use one of the special envelopes around the church perimeter if you would like to place cash in the basket, with again, "CRS Middle East" written on the envelope.

YOUTH MINISTRY

“Have no anxiety at all, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, make your requests known to God.” Philippians 4:6

Last week our youth group focused on what to do when we feel overwhelmed. We all have to deal with stress and anxiety. But then we explored the Bible and discussed how we are never alone, how to persevere and have faith that we can overcome every obstacle in our way, because we are God's children. This week we are going to focus on prayer. Two of our teens will lead both meetings as we explore the different types of prayer, Pope Francis's Five Finger Prayer, and how to deepen our prayer life. God is GOOD!

In my distress, anxiety, and fear, Lord, teach me to rely on You and draw close to You. Then I know I'll be able to stand strong in Your power and won't be dependent on my own strength. Prayer is the bridge between panic and peace. -From Our Daily Bread

WEEKLY MEETING TIMES: Unless noted otherwise, Grades 6-8: will meet at 5:30, everyone will attend The Teen Mass at 7:00, and Grades 9-12: will meet from 8:00-9:30.

FROM THE PASTOR'S PERSPECTIVE

Exaltation of the holy cross: Every year on September 14, this year a Sunday, we remember this great symbol of our salvation. Do you remember your “first cross?” Not just the image, but also that burden that you had to carry? As we will remember in our readings, it is Christ who walks with us in love to lift us up and transform us by our cross.

Our outside cross: This is a great weekend to highlight that our 35 foot cross, outside the north window wall, will be painted soon. It’s been a long planning process, for we have to rent a lift for a few days, and they are quite noisy. Like many of our maintenance projects, we have to do them at certain times when the least amount of people will be affected. We hope you enjoy the fresh color (jute brown) on the cross and the other painting & refreshing projects around the campus. Likewise, we hope we have found some vegetation that will grow next year and not be eaten by our “pet” deer as we prepare our beds now.

Great weekend: All weekends are full at SPB, but last weekend it was a “mega weekend” and great “kickoff” to September ministry. I was never as proud and grateful of SPB as I was with all the wonderful events that we celebrated. First, special thanks to Dorothy & Mary Jane for a great river/lake dinner cruise with the Saint Paschal Travelers. Special thanks to Catanese Seafood for your special greeting on the river. (Let us know who you are at Mass – the sun was blinding and we couldn’t see you too well!) Secondly, I am grateful to the Ladies Guild and friends of Julie Billiard School for being present. From our maintenance staff, to Emmy, Sophia, Shannon, Nancy and so many others, you were here many hours on Saturday to make people feel so welcome. Also to supporting the Fair Trade Expo; while we didn’t have as many vendors as we had hoped, I am so appreciative to Gail, Janet, Dennis and Kathy for helping getting this organized for us. The evening funeral Mass was also a special tribute to one of our founding liturgy commission members, Mel Culek. Due to the other Masses all day, we were able to work in the evening one, for it was about the Eucharist for Mel and for all of us as we remember. Besides football and volleyball going on outside, we had the Blood Drive inside – so special thanks to Patty, Ann Marie and our Wellness Committee for their special commitment of care. Congratulations Audrey Barrer, winning the Browns tickets from the Fair Trade Expo!

New administrative assistant/bulletin editor: Mary Beth Hallal will be relocating with her husband to Florida for a new job there. We will miss her and are grateful to her dedication to our parish for these past three years. If you are interested in working two days a week in the parish office, have excellent computer skills and familiar with word processing, let us know! Additionally, we are looking for some receptionists to assist on evenings and weekends. Contact our Business Manager, Patty, for full details and an application to apply.

We rent our spaces: Plan on having one of your family events here at SPB by checking on the availability of our halls and meetings rooms. With two kitchens and other spaces, celebrate your important events with us! Contact the parish office.

Community at prayer leader: Joan Hinkle has been one of our coordinators for our Community @ Prayer ministry (adoration) for the last 10 years and is unable to continue. We are grateful for her leadership and dedication to this ministry for us. If you would be interested in helping with some minor organization activities, keeping our chart of prayer leaders each hour, communication with the members and other details, let us know.

Communion minister training & formation: Parish life is not as stable as it used to be, with job relocations, retiring folks summering here, wintering there, etc. We are always in need for more ministers to distribute the Body & Blood of Christ at Mass, especially our high school and young adults who have recently been confirmed. Our parish will be hosting a formation class on Sunday, October 12, 2-4 p.m. Come for the class and become a regular minister; contact George Zagar <zagarga@gmail.com> about training during one evening night session here at our church and our routines. Additionally, we allow for "on the job training" with one of our ministers mentoring you. So you see, we are making it easy for you to witness to the Eucharist and share the Eucharist!

Notice the bulletin calendar: So much is coming up - -please check the parish calendar for other important items, such as the National Life Chain Sunday, on our front lawn on Wilson Mills. Meanwhile, pray for our Leadership Day Sunday afternoon and pray for another great week at SPB!

In Christ our Eucharist,

Reverend John Thomas Lane, SSS, Pastor

BAPTISMS

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE CHILDREN RECENTLY BAPTIZED AT SAINT PASCHAL BAYLON:

Hank William Herboid, son of Matthew and Jennifer, Chinwe Valerie Agbakoba, daughter of Olisaemeka and Mamuyovwi, Benjamin Richard Gromek, son of Richard and Kristy

WHAT IS BEREAVEMENT?

Someone you love very dearly has died and the pain, sadness and confusion seem too great for any words to mean anything. Even life itself can seem hollow and meaningless and yet, everything becomes new again. The one who suffers this loss is the mourner who must travel through the phases of grief. Working through grief is hard work, accomplished over a period of time and made easier when shared with others. St. Paschal/St. Clare Bereavement Support Group can help.

WALKING IN HOPE. . . A BEREAVEMENT SUPPORT GROUP

Each of us grieves the loss of a loved one in a different way, yet many experiences are common to all. St. Paschal and St. Clare wish to offer support to widows and widowers, parents who have lost a child or anyone who has lost a significant person in their life.

A six-week support group will be offered beginning on Wednesday, September 17. We will meet in the St. Paschal Rectory parlor from 6:00 to 8:00 p.m. in a relaxed atmosphere with guest speakers, support materials and refreshments. Come join us and feel free to bring a friend or relative. This support group is open to parishioners and non-parishioners. Contact Barbara Curran at 440-840-5511 for additional information.

EYMARD CORNER WE'RE BACK!

We begin another year of the Eymard Spiritual Group where the SPB parish community gathers to pray, to connect, to eat and to be inspired.

Recipe for Life

There's a lot of biblical talk about cooking ingredients specifically salt and leaven. For those not familiar with kitchen talk, "leaven" would be the yeast which causes dough to rise. Without leaven you have some very flat bread. But there's more to this leaven. What is the leaven in our lives? What moves us to rise to the occasions to live our faith? Then there's salt. Our salt is mined and pretty much keeps its saltiness. The salt that Jesus speaks of in Matthew 5:13, "You are the salt of the earth, but if the salt loses its taste with what can it be seasoned?" The salt here is gathered along the shore lines of Judea and, yes, it can become weak. Now back to cooking. So, you want to use good salt and not a salt that will lose its taste. More importantly, if we lose the taste for loving, for justice, for mercy, for hope, and for faith what shall we use to season our lives? The question remains. How shall we leaven and salt our lives? The answer is in the kitchen where we need to prepare those Eucharistic meals for others.

Sr. Sheila Marie Tobbe, O.S.U. (Order of Sr. Ursula - Ursulines) will be our guest and speak of her personal commitment of 'working in the vineyards' and of those commitments of Ursuline Sr. Dorothy Kazel; lay minister, Jean Donovan and Maryknoll Sisters Maura Clarke and Ita Ford who were murdered in El Salvador December 2, 1980. We must learn from those who have given their lives in the vineyard. They rose to the occasion; they were seasoned by their faith.

The Eymard Spiritual Group will gather on TUESDAY September 30 in the Eymard Room of the Parish Family Center.

11:00- social, 11:30-Novena, Noon- lunch, 1:00

GUEST: Sr. Sheila Marie Tobbe, SND
