22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time: This week we begin a few weeks in the Letter of James for our second reading at Mass. This is one of my favorite letters on many levels. For one reason, already in the early church you hear the tensions and concerns, especially being faithful followers and the practices of God's Word. We realize how difficult it is to "practice what we preach." God gives us another try and so should we with one another, for as Jesus says, don't cling to human traditions but to God's commandments (see Mark 7: 14-15).

Why We Do What We Do at Mass: Part 6: We continue to fulfill our Pastoral Plan dream to learn more about the Eucharist Mass with explanations of "why we do what we do." I am happy to hear, especially from our Prayer Shawl Ministry and others this past week, that you have found this series of columns helpful. (The past 5 columns in the series are online). So with that in mind, I'll go to another question: Why are there two creeds? And why do we rotate which one we say?

From Saint Ambrose, who died in 397 as Bishop of Milan (now Italy), we hear of the older "Apostles Creed" coming from the mouths of the early apostles, especially Peter and the Church of Rome. It was used in a baptismal "question/answer" form that we still use today. In fact, when I baptize or during the Easter Season, we sing: "Credo Credo Amen" – or "I Believe, I Believe. Amen." As we have been discussing in this column, at one time everyone sang everything, or chanted, for as Saint Augustine reminds us, "singing is praying two times over." This formula was written in a "non-question/answer" way and summarized the faith of the early church as it was being handed down.

The second creed we use for Mass comes from two ecumenical councils, held in 325 and 381. It is said in all Christian churches; where as the Apostles Creed is only said in Latin Rite or Western churches. As you may recall, there were a lot of theologies and issues about Christ and his humanity and divinity. The church bishops argue about this and settled the matters by having these meetings or council in Nicea (Greece today) and Constantinople (Istanbul, Turkey today). The creed grew in word and meaning and eventually became mandated to proclaim it during the Mass through the French and German bishops in the 11th century. It was not a universal liturgical part of the Mass until the Roman Missal of 1570.

We alternate during liturgical seasons (like colors and other Mass parts being sung) to highlight their importance for certain times of the year (for as you may have read in missalettes or the hymnal certain seasons are more appropriate for the Apostles Creed). Also, many times, while we are still learning the new updated words, we have chosen to focus on one (Apostles – used during the recitation of the rosary) over the other (Nicene).

A question I had recently, "Why did Jesus have to descend to the dead or descend into hell?" From the Letter to the Ephesians 4: 9 – 10, this notion and reality is that Jesus went into the earth to bring back all that had died or is dead to bring new life and light on all humankind (see the Roman Missal, Easter Vigil 18, Exulted for the full text of what we sing this holy night). Being in the realm of the dead wanted to prove Jesus' resurrection – the worry that he didn't really die. This was placed in the creeds to state he did die for us. At the Council of Rome in 745, the church leaders also clarified that Jesus descended to free the just who had gone before him. Jesus Christ went to open the gates of heaven to all the just who had gone before him. (See Catechism of the Catholic Church 631 – 637 for a complete study.)

Volunteer Coordinator: Have you and your group sent your committee names and emails to Michelle Mazza, our Administrative Assistant? Help us have a complete list of names in your group so that when there is news, information or a blizzard, we may be able to get the word out quickly.

Director of Advancement: Our search committee has completed its summer work and we are now advertising for an Advancement Director for our parish. Please look to our website for the details and share the info with a candidate or two. Please pray for our parish as we prepare to welcome this new staff member to assist us with our stewardship efforts and implementation of our Pastoral Plan

El Salvador Food for the Poor – Lenten Trip: October 24/25, a friend of mine who works for Food for the Poor, Fr. Scott Steinkerchner, OP (we grew up together here thru Tetelestai) will be here to preach the weekend Masses and raise funds for our Lenten Trip – to build, paint and supply the needs of San Salvador, El Salvador. We are in the initial planning stages for our Trip, February 22 – 26, 2016. Let me know if you would like to go with Fr. Scott and SPB to El Salvador on these days.

Special THANKS This Week! We had some wonderful concerts in the SSS Garden this summer – Christmas in July and the Light of Two Moons on August 13. Special thanks to our parishioners, John Anderson, Neil Brofman, John Perrine, Jeff Pohlhammer, Matt and Julie Parrotta, and Fr. John Christman, SSS, for providing excellent entertainment and to George Zagar for the pizza! We look forward to this new tradition continuing each summer. Lastly, big kudos and thanks to Roger Fisher, our Maintenance Supervisor, for the remodel of the school office and art room. We are all now enjoying the fruits of his hard work and labor- thanks Roger!

Summer Ending Recruitment Drive: It's time to support, affirm and encourage folks to return to regular worship of God and attend Mass to be who we say we are: The Body of Christ. Tell your family members you miss them and love them – and just like the family meal, you want to be together to begin the celebration of the family with the family of God, here at SPB. We are blessed to have a great team of musicians, preaching, hospitality and kindness. Welcome people back and begin Sunday and the week ahead in a special way that supports and nourishes our faith and life with God. Worship is a team effort – we can't do it without you! See you next Sunday, especially for Nick's Green Knights, Mass and Bonfire on Saturday! (We will welcome some new Christians into our faith too!)
Let's continue to pray for each other!

In Christ our Eucharist,

Reverend John Thomas J. Lane, SSS, Class of 1979

Pastor

CLOWN AND HELPING HAND MINISTRY

The Clown and Helping Hand Ministry continue to reach out to so many. The Clowns did an outstanding job at the Fest this month having games and face painting. They brought smiles and joy to so many people. The Helping Hands continue to feed and clothe so many in the Cleveland area, as well as the Highland Heights area. God has so blessed the parish with so many generous and loving people. God Bless every one of you!! I would like to share with you my three week stay in San Antonio. I spend a good part of winter and the Lenten season there and we are busy hearing confessions and celebrating the daily Mass. This trip was especially busy with confessions and Mass. We had hundreds of people join us including a lot of high school students. Our church is located in the middle of the famous River Walk and the Alamo is right around the corner from us. San Antonio is one of the top ten convention places in the U.S., so we benefit from so many people from all over the world. Our founder wanted a place in the middle of the city where the faithful could find a place to stop and receive the sacraments-he called them cenacles. Father Mario, the pastor, made this happen. Seeing all those people, young and old, coming in our church daily, makes one feel there is hope for the future. Remember God is Good All the Time....All the Time God is Good....Deacon Joe.

YOUTH MINISTRY

“Spend as much time as possible in front of the Blessed Sacrament and He will fill you with His strength and His power.” -Mother Teresa

One of our favorite things our youth group likes to do is Adoration; prayer before Jesus in the Eucharist. As Matt Maher sings in his song, Burning in Our Soul, “There is power here in this hour...” Whenever you are feeling lost, sad, happy, in need of guidance, anything at all, get a SON tan and sit in the presence of the Lord. It truly will make all the difference in the world. Join us once a month for our Eucharistic Adoration praise and worship holy hours throughout the year! Although our official kick off meeting is not until the end of September, we do have opportunities to gather together in the next few weeks. Feel free to join us at any of the following upcoming events:

September 4th: First Friday’s at Francis ~ Join a number of our youth group members at St. Francis in Gates Mills for a special Holy Hour of Eucharistic Adoration beginning at 7 pm. Bring a friend or two!

September 5th: Nick’s Nights and Fall Bonfire with a special Teen Mass here at SPB. We will sit together as a youth group and hang out after Mass.

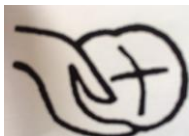

September 17th: XLT at Borromeo Seminary at 7:00 p.m. Once again, join us in the chapel for praise and worship before the Eucharist!

September 26th: Our annual Outdoor Movie Night right here at SPB near the playground!

BEREAVEMENT MINISTRY

WHAT IS BEREAVEMENT? Someone you love very dearly has died and the pain, sadness and confusion seem too great for any words to mean anything. Even life itself can seem hollow and meaningless and yet, everything becomes new again. The one who suffers this loss is the mourner who must travel through the phases of grief. Working through grief is hard work, accomplished over a period of time and made easier when shared with others. The Saint Paschal/Saint Clare Bereavement Support Group can help. WALKING IN HOPE-A BEREAVEMENT SUPPORT GROUP – Each of us grieves the loss of a loved one in a different way; yet, many experiences are common to all. Our support group wishes to offer support to widows and widowers, parents who have lost a child or anyone who has lost a significant person in their life. A six-week support group will be offered beginning on Wednesday, September 16, 2015. We will meet in the SPB rectory parlor from 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. in a relaxed atmosphere with guest speakers, support materials and refreshments. Come join us and feel free to bring a friend or relative. This support group is open to parishioners and non-parishioners. There is no charge. For information, contact Barbara Curran at 440-840-5511 or Corky Mondello at 440-449-3584 or the Saint Paschal Rectory Office at 440-442-3410.
