24th Sunday in Ordinary Time: “Who do people say that I am?” We ask that question of one another regularly out of a sense of finding out if we have a favorable opinion. Jesus uses this opportunity in today’s Gospel to draw out the faith of the disciples – Peter, you and me! We are reminded that our faith leads to a journey with our cross. Faith without the cross is meaningless, for the cross helps us lose our life and gain the Gospel to save us!

Part 8 - Why We Do What We Do at Mass:

“Ite missa est.” I’m sure a few of you remember this famous phrase in Latin that is loosely translated into English: Go, you are sent! This week I thought I would reflect upon the dismissals we have during the Mass. The word “Mass” comes from this dismissal rite – that we are “missioned” to go and live what we have celebrated. It’s odd to many of us, that the last thing the priest celebrant would say would become the very thing that names what we do, but this is what happens. We go to live the Gospel, to live thanksgiving (in Greek, we say “Eucharist”) to live the “mystery of faith” and make the Body of Christ come alive in the world.

CLW: Last week we talked a bit about the “extra” dismissal of the Communion Minister to the Homebound and other places. This week I wish to mention the other dismissals that have been added to the 1970 Roman Missal. The first one was added in 1973 with the Directory for Masses with Children. This penultimate document, a first for the church’s history, gave a way to incorporate young people in Masses and special ways to adapt the liturgy where there are children present or have their own special Mass. Unique was the advocating of the Children’s Liturgy of the Word, that we have done at our parish since 2009 at the 10:00 a.m. Sunday Mass. The children “are dismissed” to go and listen and celebrate God’s Word with their own special lectionary, a book translated into the language of children. These children are “sent” to have God’s Word celebrated in a special way and with an activity, during the homily time, to further develop the theme of the readings. This is why you see the children return for the Liturgy of the Eucharist with a special coloring or craft piece.

RCIA: The other dismissal that was added to the liturgy occurred with the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults or the RCIA, in 1988 when we “dismiss” the catechumens and candidates preparing for becoming Catholic. This ritual of dismissal returned from the 4th century catechumenate, when the first part of the liturgy was called the “Liturgy of the Catechumens” and not the “Liturgy of the Word,” as it is now. Those who were not able to receive or participate in the Eucharistic Prayer, whether because of penance or preparation for initiation (baptism, confirmation and First Communion) left to reflect on God’s Word or just went home, nourished at the Table of the Word. So in 1988, this part of the Mass returned, where Saint Paschal Baylon follows this ritual during the Catechumenate and Elect Periods of the RCIA. (Some parishes dismiss all year long, every Sunday and at all the weekend Masses. We are not as big of a parish and do not have the need and follow one of the options of this dismissal).

FROM THE PASTOR'S PERSPECTIVE...

Being “sent” reminds us of the importance of what we do – whether it is to listen to God’s Word; to leave to ponder God’s Word; to go and share holy communion with those not present or to leave and go and live the Eucharist. We are all on a mission to fulfill our call and bring Christ to others. We “do this in memory of Him” who sends us all to “take up our cross and follow Christ.”

Coming Events: Our parish life has kicked back into full gear, especially with Education/Formation. I hope you will take advantage of the opportunities, especially that which is mentioned at all of the Masses this weekend with learning about Saint Peter Julian Eymard and a Eucharistic Life. Also, coming up is learning about what Fair Trade means, Taize Prayer and our special mission to El Salvador (in October).

NOTE the Room Change: We are all enjoying the new School Office that is part of the Family Life Center (FLC). To accommodate this move, the parish is now “leasing” meeting room space in the north wing of the SSS building, that is, the former Saint Ann Shrine rooms. Some of us older parishioners may recall when we used all of these former seminary classrooms as meeting rooms for parish activities. We will now have two meeting spaces, one will be for the Youth Group and the other will be the Sr. Dorothy Kazel, OSU (our local martyr) – moving this room name from one building (FLC) to the other (SSS) in memory of her. This is a special anniversary year, for it was 35 years ago, December 2 that she gave her life for the Gospel. She was “sent” to bring the Good News of Christ and fulfilled her dream to her death. We honor her and her life-giving memory in this special space that we hope to begin using this week. Meanwhile, it’s great to see more people at church each week. Worship is a team effort – we can’t do it without you! See you next Sunday at Mass and until then, let’s continue to pray for each other!

In Christ our Eucharist,

Reverend John Thomas J. Lane, SSS, Class of 1979

Pastor

CLOWN AND HELPING HANDS MINISTRY

The Clown and Helping Hands Ministry are able to continue to reach out to so many because of the generosity of all of YOU. I would like to share with you, what we see when we go out on the streets of Cleveland. One Wednesday night, our Knight Riders saw a homeless man eating a worm filled hamburger he dug out of a dumpster. The Knight Riders were able to feed him a hot meal, give him clothes and a warm blanket. The man became emotional and started crying over their kindness. Another Wednesday night, they went to an area where most of the homeless live in tents. They supplied them with chicken, potatoes, veggies and fruit. One said, "We haven't had food all day. This feels like a Christmas meal." We could share so many stories on what we encounter on Wednesdays, Saturdays and our visits to Saint Augustine and Saint Vitus. This is a seven-day ministry that continues to help so many needy people with food, clothing and warm blankets. Just the other day we received a call from a needy person asking for help because she has no money to buy food or her medication. For the past few months the Greater Cleveland Food Bank has been unable to supply the churches with food. These encounters are what we see every week and this is why your AWESOME GENEROSITY makes it possible for us to reach out to those in great need. Thank you and God Bless!! Remember God is good all the time....all the time God is good. Deacon Joe.

BLESSED SACRAMENT COMMUNITY

SPIRITUAL FORMATION PROGRAM - A group of Lay Associates of the Blessed Sacrament at SPB are presenting a spiritual formation program for those who are curious to know more about the founder of the Blessed Sacrament congregation, Saint Peter Julian Eymard. The course will begin Wednesday, September 16 and will continue the 3rd Wednesday of each month for the next 18 months at 7:00 p.m. – 8:45 p.m. in the Eymard Room. A fee of $15 per semester will cover the books and material use in the course. The three 6-session semesters will include prayer, a teaching, discussion and faith sharing. Please contact the parish office to register for this parish spiritual program.

SPIRITUAL FORMATION MINISTRY

This weekend at all the Masses the Spiritual Formation committee is introducing a new adult faith opportunity, ARISE Together in Christ, which consists of small groups where we can share our faith and grow closer to the Lord. These small groups will consist of 8-10 people who will gather in someone's home or at the parish, once a week for an hour and a half, for six weeks, at a day and time of their choosing. Each participant will receive a book, which contains faith-sharing material consisting of prayer, scripture readings, reflections and faith-sharing questions. The atmosphere is informal and a trained leader helps to facilitate the prayer and sharing. The cost of the 6-week program is $10, which covers the cost of the book. Sign up will be available in Narthex this weekend and until October 4. If you have any questions or would like further information, call Rosalie Lewis at 440-227-8718, Jo Ann Lane at 216-926-7321 or Barbara Curran at 440-840-5511.
