THE SYMBOLON CATHOLIC FAITH EXPLAINED

Session 3: The Bible: God's Love Letter to Humanity

In the Sacred Scriptures, our Father in Heaven reaches out to lovingly talk with his children. Through the words of the Bible, God speaks to us in a deeply personal and intimate way. The Spiritual Formation Committee of St Clare and St Paschal invite you to take a step toward a deeper and richer experience of your Catholic faith that will last a lifetime.

This is the third of a 10-part study of the Catholic faith entitled Symbolon. . We will gather once a month to reflect on God's plan of salvation for us, basing our study on the Creed. Each session includes prayer, video presentations and time for discussion. These sessions are independent of each other.

Our March session will be held both on March 12, 6:30-8:00 pm in the Eymard Room at St. Paschal and on March 15, 12:30-2:00 pm in the Harvest Room at St. Clare. There is no registration fee, so please just come and become part of this new and exciting adult faith formation program.

If you have any questions or would like further information, call Rosalie Lewis at 440-227-8718 or Barb Curran at 440-840-5511.

CLOWN/HELPING HANDS MINISTRY

No words can even begin to explain how this parish made my 40th anniversary such a fantastic celebration of love. I will say it again, that the 19 years that I have been here at Saint Paschal have been the most spiritual, the most rewarding, and the most joyous of my 40 years as a deacon. Our parish is so generous, with volunteers who are so loving and caring to those most in need. I have been involved with many ministries in different parishes but never have I seen so much love as I see here at Saint Paschal. Our Clown and Helping Hands Ministry was started by two who wanted to reach out to as many as possible. The Good Lord heard our prayers and this ministry has grown beyond what we dreamed. I want to thank Fr. Lane for his kind words, my religious community, the choir who sang so beautifully, the Blessed Sacrament Guild who organized the reception, the Clown and Helping Hands ministry volunteers, and the most loving parish. Thank you! Thank you from the bottom of my heart. I love you! GOD IS GOOD ALL THE TIME. ALL THE TIME GOD IS GOOD.

YOUTH MINISTRY

"Love is a strong force — a great good in every way; it alone can make our burdens light, and alone it bears in equal balance what is pleasing and displeasing. It carries a burden and does not feel it; it makes all that is bitter taste sweet. ... Nothing is sweeter than love, nothing higher, nothing stronger, nothing larger, nothing more joyful, nothing fuller, nothing better in heaven or on earth; for love is born of God and can find its rest only in God above all He has created. Such lovers fly high, run swiftly and rejoice. Their souls are free; they give all for all and have all in all. For they rest in One supreme Goodness above all things, from Whom all other good flows and proceeds. They look not only at the gifts, but at the Giver, Who is above all gifts." — Thomas à Kempis

Love is what we are working on this weekend in youth group! We want to spread our love to our younger children in our parish by having a special party, complete with SUPERHEROES AND PRINCESSES! All donations will be given to our youth group and SPB's Manna Ministry! Please pop over after the 10:00 Mass and have some cookies and enjoy our hot chocolate bar! Thank you for your continued support!

WELCOME TO OUR NEW PARISHIONERS

Mr. Spencer German, Mr. and Mrs. Huy Tran, Mr. and Mrs. Brian Brown, Mr. and Mrs. James Fill, Mr. Domenic Ina and Ms. Jacquelyn Topazio, Mr. Nicholas Sow, Mr. Jon Titter, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Daher, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Pavalko, Mr. and Mrs. Joe SeSanto, Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Taricska

FROM THE PASTOR'S PERSPECTIVE

Due to the holiday schedule, parts of this bulletin were prepared Saturday, February 10.

2nd Sunday of Lent: We walk with Abraham, Isaac, Peter, James and John this weekend up a mountain with God. As Sister Verna Holyhead SGS writes in Give Us This Day, page 259 for February 2018: Every disciple in every age has to learn what Peter, James, and John learned on the Mountain of the Transfiguration: Following Jesus [Christ] is not about comfort and security but about daring to hammer the tent pegs of our lives into the mystery of Christ, with a readiness to strike camp and move on when He calls.

When we listen to God, we hear how He calls Jesus, his beloved Son – and that we are called to be God’s beloved children. We listen and pay attention to what matters most in our journeys. We may not know the whole story of our lives yet. But we do know that our journey of going up and down mountains is happening, and through our trials, suffering, joys and listening, we become more of what God wants us to be. We always have to be ready for the next thing, knowing that God will be there with us.

Through our Art & Environment Committee, Jeff Loerch has assisted us again with a beautiful banner that I hope you will watch week to week and notice how it transforms. Like the scriptures, we are rooted in Christ, but this season “uproots us” and changes us and even “transfigures” us.

Catholic Charities Appeal: Have you made your commitment and pledge to Catholic Charities? Our diocese can be so proud of what we do in this outreaching ministry serving at least 400,000 people a year with 150 services at 60 locations across 8 counties. Our parish goal this year is $152,307. I am confident that we will make this goal, with each parishioner participating in some way – through prayer, sacrificing a cup of coffee or a meal to send in a donation to support our important ministry of the church of Cleveland. Help us meet our goal, but more importantly, help us be merciful and transform other lives as ours have been transformed in Christ’s love. YOU BRING MERCY and God to others by your support of these valuable ministries.

Rite of Sending Communion Ministers to the Homebound and Sick: Back in 2009, Bishop Lennon and the Diocese of Cleveland enacted a ritual at the end of the Communion Rite that you see some parishes in the diocese follow, as we do at SPB. Nancy Rufo < Nrufo1@gmail.com > coordinates this ministry for us, so that even when family members who come forward are not able to minister, others may assist in bringing the Eucharist. This is a special ritual. If you do not already have a copy of it, we invite you to request one after Mass, from one of the priests in the sacristy. Other folks may carry out this ministry, and we are always looking for assistance for people who do not have family to minister. Here is the outline of the ritual for those who are homebound or in a nursing home:

- Optional use of holy water from the baptismal font
- Share at least one of the readings from Mass (usually the Gospel – and there are missalettes to borrow)
- Share the homily you heard at Mass
- Ask if there are prayers or prayer requests
- The LORD’S Prayer
- The Invitation to Communion: Showing the host and saying, “Behold the Lamb of God”

- Distribute Holy Communion
- Silence
- Prayer after Holy Communion
- Blessing

If you do not have a pyx, you may purchase one at one of the religious good stores or borrow one from the sacristy. This is an important outreach and healing ministry of our parish. You keep our parishioners in communion with us! And, of course, you bring bulletins, the parish newsletter Paschal Life, and other handouts so that they may continue to share in the life of the parish. You may also teach them how to use the parish website and “e-giving!” ☺ Thank you for this special ministry of service, continuing the Communion Rite of Mass to those who are in communion in their homes.

Parish Mission: I know you are looking forward to being with me this week for our parish mission. You can't miss the great picture of my friend, Fr. Tom on the cover of the bulletin. Fr. Tom was just appointed by Pope Francis to serve on a commission for evangelization. So he is that good – and joyful – and funny! Hopefully he will not reveal too many secrets from our seminary days. Fr. Tom will be at all the Sunday Masses. Please plan on being present each evening, 7:00 p.m. Monday, Tuesday & Wednesday as we deepen our love and understanding of the sacraments of the church. We thank in advance the Welcome Committee for providing a reception after Mass.

Question & Answer: Recently someone asked me: Does the “Confiteor” of Mass count as going to confession and have the same weight as going to the sacrament? The answer is no. However, we have plenty of times to receive the sacrament of reconciliation, like this Wednesday from 5:00 – 8:00 p.m. here or around the diocese; by an appointment with one of the priests; by dropping in during office hours to the special celebration of the sacrament in the Reconciliation Room in the parish offices; Saturday afternoon at 3:30 p.m.; or through the communal celebrations that are coming up in a few weeks and mentioned elsewhere in the bulletin.

Happy Lent and let's continue to pray for each other!

In Christ our Eucharist,

Reverend John Thomas Lane, SSS
Pastor

P.S. Mark your calendar: The Sacrament of Confirmation will be celebrated with Bishop Nelson Perez, 4:30 p.m. Saturday, April 28. Yes, Virginia – during the regular 4:30 Mass time. REMINDER: Administrators at the diocese assign the day and time.

MAKE A VISIT

When driving in the area, make a visit to the chapel to spend more time in prayer, or even better, make an appointment with God by signing up for an hour of praying with the Community at Prayer ministry. Also, commit to an hour a week to pray in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament, either in the rite of exposition or at other times. We need people to continue exposition of the Blessed Sacrament during the day:

1. Tuesday 1:00 – 2:00 p.m.
2. Tuesday 3:00 – 4:00 p.m.
3. Wednesday 5:00 p.m. - PLEASE to help us with the evening witness
