Prayer: In the first reading (Is 50:4-7), Isaiah says that morning after morning the Lord opens his ears so he may hear. Start each day with a morning prayer.

Fasting: The second reading (Phil 2:6-11) proclaims that Jesus humbled himself and was obedient to the point of death. Practice humility and obedience this week.

Almsgiving: In the Gospel (Luke 22:14-23:56), Jesus suffers and dies to save everyone. Invite someone to come to church with you this week.

2019 SPRING FLING CORNER

The countdown clock stands at, T minus 32 days. Anxieties (mine) are rising but the long-term weather forecasts look good.

- As of April 2, ticket sales topped $13,750 with more than 550 books sold. Don't let those tickets collect dust, fill them out and turn them in. Be eligible for the weekly $100 drawings!
- The online volunteer site is live. Want your group to staff one of the sessions? Let us know and we will reserve the spot for you. Visit the parish website www.saintpaschal.com; "Church"; then select "Spring Fling" to reach the site. Not tech savvy? Signup sheets are available in the narthex and at the rectory.
- If you patronize a local business that would allow us to display one of our large "Festival Posters", please feel free to pick one up in the narthex. We need your help in promoting our festival.
- The Basket Auction is expanding. A list of items we are looking for can be found under the website's "Spring Fling" tab. We need cash donations, gift baskets and gift cards for gas or restaurants, for many of the auction items. If you are a Cleveland Sports Season or Cleveland Orchestra Ticket Holder and can help, please contact me.
- Lastly, NPR's Car Talk Press Secretary, Donna B. Zonozi, felt I needed help in tightening up these articles, so she pitched in. What do you think? Did it help?

Our next "pre-festival" meeting is Monday, April 22 at 6:30 p.m. in the rectory. Contact Bob Mastrangelo at bgmastrangelo@gmail.com or by phone at 440-442-2854 for additional information.

YOUTH MINISTRY

"Yes, my heart's dear one, Jesus, is here with His cross. Since you are one of His favorites, he wants to make you into His likeness; why be afraid that you will not have the strength to carry this cross without a struggle? On the way to Calvary, Jesus did indeed fall three times and you, poor little child, would like to be different from your spouse, would rather not fall a hundred times if necessary, to prove your love to Him by getting back up with even more strength than before your fall!"
— St. Therese of Lisieux

As we enter the holiest of weeks, may we be united with Christ in His suffering and truly know the great love He has for each and every one of us. This week in Youth Group, we will gather as one, all those in grades 6-12, and reflect on the upcoming events of Holy Week!

FROM FATHER LANE, SSS, OUR 8TH PASTOR

Palm Sunday of the LORD'S Passion:

I'll never forget a dramatic class in the seminary that I had with a professor – whom you got to meet during our parish mission ☺ - who said this is all that needs to be said for this special day in the church:

Christ's procession with the cross is our procession with the cross! Christ's suffering with the cross is our suffering with the cross! Christ's dying on the cross is our dying on the cross. Christ's rising from the cross is our rising from our cross!

“Were you there?” Heck! We are living it! And may this passion day and holy week, with the most beautiful liturgies of the year, be the place where we find Christ right with us in our own transformation and paschal mystery. I look forward to seeing you each day this week at our services! This Saturday is the “Super Bowl” of all liturgies: no regular confessions at 3:30 p.m. nor 4:30 p.m. Mass. The “Mother of all Vigils” is at 8:30 p.m. What a night ahead!

Children's Liturgy of the Word at 2 Masses Starting June 1: We have had the rich enjoyment of more families attending the 4:30 p.m. Saturday Mass. Beginning on June 1, we will add Liturgy of the Word with children to this Mas. For those unfamiliar with seeing this celebration regularly at the 10:00 a.m. Mass since June 2010, here's how it goes:

- In the opening procession of the Mass, a child carries the candle and another child carries the Lectionary for Masses with Children, an approved liturgical translation to form young Catholic Christians. (It's the Sunday readings at their level.)
- After the Collect (Opening Prayer), the children are called up into the sanctuary and process to the Eymard Room.
- During their time in the Eymard Room (and parents, grandparents and other family members are welcome to also attend and walk over with the children), the children have an adult leader who helps them hear the scriptures, reflect on God's Word and complete an activity that brings out the theme or meaning of the readings for that Sunday.
- During the Preparation of the Gifts, the children and family members return to the church for the Liturgy of the Eucharist.

Tricia Slemc has led this for 9 wonderful years at the 10:00 a.m. Mass. Even though her children have not been part of the “dismissal” and CLW for the last 2 years, she's continued to organize this ministry for us. We are so grateful and are so happy she will continue to assist as a catechist-leader and substitute. We have wonderful catechist leaders who assist at 10:00 a.m. Mass and now expanding this ministry this summer to assist families who go to either Mass. Spread the word – and contact George Peko (our Catechetical Leader @ psr@saintpaschal.com) if you would like to be part of the team that leads this ministry.

Preparing for Spring Fling X Parish Festival: Thank you for selling raffle tickets and volunteering. We have some new food offerings and special new LIVE entertainment, including the Cleveland Bluegrass Orchestra!

Annual Easter Egg Hunt: We thank the SPB Young Families Group for leading the Easter Egg Hunt after the 10:00 a.m. Mass, Sunday, April 28 in the cross alley, weather permitting!

National Day of Prayer Celebration: We know the old axiom: The family that prays together stays together. May we, as neighbors and friends, do the same to continue to strengthen our neighborhood by joining in a special one-hour prayer service at Lyndhurst Community Presbyterian Church (across from Lyndhurst Municipal Complex), Thursday, May 2, at 7:00 p.m. The Hillcrest Ministerial Association hosts this annual gathering as a witness to the religions of our community, gathering and praying as one for the good of our community and nation.

Spring Liturgical Minister Recruitment Drive: Christianity is a “team effort,” like a sport. We can’t worship without one another, especially Sunday to Sunday. As Saint Paul says, “Can I say to that part of the body, I don’t need you?” No – we need each other and need to support one another to worship together as the Body of Christ. We all have our parts to play – and we are at a point where we would like you to become more involved in the liturgies in the following ministries:

- Greeters (Contact Tony Ward: music-liturgy@saintpaschal.com)
- Communion ministers (Contact George Zagar: zagarga@gmail.com)
- Lectors (Contact John Schuster: johnschuster9@yahoo.com)
- Altar servers (Contact Kathryn Mailer: solonkat@yahoo.com)
Student training begins Tuesday, April 30 after school; Adult training for funerals or other Masses is “on the job” – contact Andy Futey cbrowns1954@aol.com or (440) 473-0485.

Being involved helps one understand and participate in the Mass, just like being in a sport needs so many to be “part of the team.”

Enjoying the New Organ: What a blessing to have the Olsin Organ, a gift from the estate of Beverly Olsin and the Ursuline Sisters of Cleveland. We will have a special blessing, rededication and mini concert on Sunday, June 2 at 3:00 p.m. We will honor the families who gave the organ to the Ursuline Sisters, as well as Scott, Beverly’s son. The old organ is going for parts to the company that installed the instrument for us. The area where the old organ has been will be cemented after Easter, giving us some extra space.

Eymard Spiritual Group: In 1980, when Father Jette was pastor (1979 – 1985), he organized a midday group that would gather once a month for a potluck luncheon and have a time of spiritual, intellectual and educational formation. He wanted it to be under the patronage of the SSS founder, Saint Peter Julian Eymard. Since then, for 39 years, we have been blessed with great food, fun and reflection to enhance our parish’s life. We even had this group meet in the evening a few times just to have more participate in the great talks. Rosemary McCormack has remarkably led this group for 19 years and her husband joined her for the last 13 years. We cannot thank the McCormack’s enough for the care and personal commitment to this gathering. Their amazing organizational skills, humor (with raffling a car at every meeting), and more has made this a special parish time each month. However, it’s time for new leadership and care for this gathering. Who would like to lead the group now? Please see me or the McCormack’s or contact them by email at jmcc856@gmail.com to help us pass on the great tradition of this group and build on the incredible foundation of love and support that has been the hallmark of Rosemary’s leadership and the Eymard Spiritual Group.

Ordination of Andrew Rudmann: Parishioners Paulina & Matthew Rudmann, the parents of Andrew, proudly share the wonderful news of the Presbyteral ordination of Andrew on June 1, 2019, and nephew and cousin to some of parishioners like the Likozar and Cup families. The ordination will be at the cathedral-basilica in New Orleans and streamed live at 11:00 a.m. on nolacatholic.org. He will return to Cleveland on the following weekend to celebrate two Masses of thanksgiving.

- Saturday, June 8, 4:30 p.m.: Mass of Thanksgiving, St. Joan of Arc Church, Chagrin Falls; reception to follow. (This is Andrew's "growing up parish.")
- Sunday, June 9, 10:00 a.m. Mass of Thanksgiving, St. Vitus Church, Cleveland; reception to follow. (This is the family's special ethnic parish.)

Andrew's story may be found by searching on YouTube: "A Day in the Life of a Seminarian New Orleans" or "hoss communications / Andrew Rudmann." We pray for Andrew in these final days of preparation and prayer for this special day in his life. We look forward at some point down the road having him share his vocation story with us LIVE here at SPB. Send Andrew well wishes: Andrew Rudmann, Notre Dame Seminary, 2901 S Carrollton Avenue, New Orleans, LA 70118

Have a Blessed Easter! For those going away on a little family vacation, we wish you safe travels and a Happy Easter! Let us continue to pray for each other!

In Christ our Eucharist,

Reverend John Thomas Lane, SSS

8th Pastor

P.S. Remember the Class of 1979 reunion, Saturday, May 18, 6:30 p.m. during Spring Fling X. Meet at the info booth. And, any others, "coming back home" are welcome to join in for a tour of the school.

CLOWN/HELPING HANDS MINISTRY

A few weeks ago, the Gospel spoke of how Jesus cured someone of blindness. I was reflecting on how blindness may not refer to eyesight, but blindness of our own shortcomings. As I work with the homeless, I talk with many who have challenges. I would like to share some experiences that I have had with those who have the "blindness" of being an alcoholic. When people have a problem of drinking too much, they often blame their surroundings or occurrences like a marriage problem or work. The person blames everything except his drinking. Then one day by the grace of God, he realizes that his drinking is the problem. He works the steps of Alcoholics Anonymous and his eyes are opened to see how this disease of alcoholism has been controlling his life and how through an entirely new life of sobriety, sees that God is the one who gives him this new life. May you all enjoy the love that flows of being sober; the love of family and friends; the love of parents and children; the love of God. Celebrate the new love all day long, for it is the breath of your existence and the best reason for loving. GOD IS GOOD ALL THE TIME. ALL THE TIME GOD IS GOOD.
