

Dear Friends,

HAPPY LENT! I hope everyone is taking the opportunities offered to us in this holy season to reconcile ourselves to the Lord, to evaluate our own Faith lives, and to journey with the members of the RCIA process as they finalize themselves to be fully initiated as Catholics through Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist.

This is a time for all of us to look at ourselves, our relationship with the Lord and with each other, and to grow more into being the disciples that Jesus calls us to be. Though our prayer, fasting and sacrifice may we come to know the Lord more fully, and celebrate the many graces that can come to us if we are but open to the Spirit working within us.

May the goodness of God grow in our hearts and minds, and lead us to true ministry and service.

Father Fred

P.S. – If you look at the Roster of Staff personnel, you will see some changes in our E-mail addresses. We are working to coordinate all our addresses to be the same style: First Initial – Last Name at a common email address that matches our web address. We have about half done already and should be up and running in a few days. But fear not, anything sent to our old address WILL be forwarded to the new mailbox, at least for the near future. *Thank you for your patience and understanding!
