Opening Prayer

Dear God, We ask you to help us find healing and peace in our lives.

Grant us hope in these times of trial.

May Maria Goretti, who was strengthened by Your grace.

Join with us in prayer for healing of all victims of abuse, particularly those abused as children or young adults.

Fill us with Your Love so that as Maria prayed for her attacker,

We too might seek Your mercy through prayer and penance.

Loving God, pour into our hearts and lives Your healing Spirit,
That the sacredness of every human being might be respected and protected as the precious image of God.

Help us to live in the peace which Maria Goretti found in Christ and in His mother, Mary.

We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ, Our Lord,
Amen.

Welcome Statement

On behalf of the Maria Goretti Network, I would like to welcome all who are here and especially our newcomers and anyone attending here in great pain. We are here for you. God is with us and is here for you.

All victims of abuse need love and support. It doesn't matter if the abuse was physical, sexual, emotional, verbal, spiritual, mental or financial or any other type of abuse. It doesn't matter who your abuser was, whether a relative, friend, spouse, minister, priest, nun, boyfriend or girlfriend, teacher, coach, commanding officer or a stranger. We welcome you!

We are survivors or friends of survivors who understand the need to experience the healing power of Jesus Christ. We are not after money. Money is irrelevant when your soul has been wounded. We are not out for revenge. We have found that the hate and anger towards those who harmed us prevents us from a full recovery. We leave vengeance to God.

Our sole interest is in helping our brothers and sisters experience healing in God's love through a gentle and loving process of accepting His abundant love and letting go of the past. We leave judgment to Him and forgive in whatever small or large steps we can take day by day.

Ground Rules

For MGN Chapter Meetings

These Ground Rules make our meetings prayerful and caring. We treat each other with gentility and care, and we care about everyone's comfort and security. By attending a meeting, you agree to comply with these Ground Rules.

1. We agree that we share responsibility for keeping our meetings prayerful and confidential.
2. We agree not to share with anyone else the names or stories, in detail or in general terms, which we may hear during meetings or in conversations with other attendees of this meeting we might speak to outside meetings.
3. We agree to focus on our own issues, feelings and recovery. Our commitment is to work on ourselves and avoid seeking distraction from our commitment by trying to solve the problems of others.
4. We agree to share information about only our own stories, circumstances and feelings.
5. We further agree that discussion of another person's story details or circumstances is not appropriate unless that person is present and has specifically requested input.
6. We agree to share feelings and to listen without judgment. Our feelings just are or were. There are, no right or wrong statements. There are, no right or wrong feelings.
7. We agree that each person knows what is best for her or himself and, therefore, must take care of her or himself during sessions. People are free to leave or take a break from a meeting any time they feel the need to do so.

8. We agree that the presence of everyone is appreciated and can be a source of healing for others. No one is required to speak during the sessions.

9. We agree not to interrupt each other. We agree to listen actively to each person as she or he speaks with the idea of how this person's experience relates to her or his own healing.

10. We agree to not seek advice or give advice, even if it is solicited. GIVING AND ASKING FOR ADVICE IS NOT PERMISSIBLE. We agree that only by gathering ideas for ourselves through listening are we empowered and able to heal. We also understand that none of us knows what is best for another.

11. We agree that respecting each other's boundaries is critically important. We agree to respect each individual's right to set their own boundaries for physical contact with the members of the group. We will honor each person's request to not be hugged, and we agree not to pressure anyone into accepting physical contact. Similarly, we will also respect and honor each individual's emotional and spiritual boundaries.

Serenity Prayer

*God, grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change, the courage to change the things I can and the wisdom to know the difference;
living one day at a time,
accepting hardship as a pathway to peace,
taking as Jesus did,
this sinful world as it is,
not as I would have it;
trusting that You will make all things right
if I surrender to Your will,
so that I may be reasonably happy in this life and supremely happy with You forever in the next.
Amen*

Here Are Some Ways You Can Forgive Others:

- 1) Admit and confront the pain you incur when others wound you.
- 2) Rely on God's power to forgive. Know that God will enable you to forgive anyone who has inflicted any type of wound on you, and have confidence in God's power to heal you. Realize that forgiveness will likely take time, but that it is always possible. Trust God, and expect Him to act.
- 3) Remember how God has forgiven you. Think about what Christ did for you on the cross, and recall the times God has answered your prayers. Thank God for His great love for you, and ask Him to help you forgive through the power of His love.
- 4) Pray about a particular hurtful incident soon after it occurs, seeking to forgive. Remember that God has warned that your own prayers will be blocked if you don't forgive others, and that evil will gain access to your life. Don't wait until you feel like forgiving; that may never happen. Instead, act out of obedience, and God will gradually send you peace.
- 5) Surrender any plans to take revenge. Be willing to pay the cost of forgiveness to receive its priceless benefits.
- 6) Understand that forgiving an offender doesn't mean that doesn't mean that you endorse the offense. What happened was wrong, and your forgiveness won't change that. But it will enable you to break free of your pain and heal, and it will release the offender from any obligation incurred due to the offense.
- 7) Strive to channel your energy when thinking of an offense in positive-rather than negative-ways. Instead of using energy to nurse resentment, use it to think of creative solutions to the problem and ways to improve your relationship with the person who hurt you.
- 8) Don't make your forgiveness contingent on whether the offender responds positively to your efforts. He or she may even be hostile, but God still wants you to forgive, and you can still benefit greatly from doing so.

- 9) Release your pain to God in prayer, and destroy any records of the offense so you won't use them to dwell on it.
- 10) If the person you need to forgive is yourself, ask God to give you a vision of how He sees you, and embrace His love. Confess any sins you haven't yet confessed to God, repent of them, and accept His forgiveness, knowing that once you do you are truly forgiven and don't need to fear that those sins will stand between you and God.
- 11) After you forgive someone, guard your heart, since it may take a while before you're able to find emotional peace.
- 12) Take a bit of time to isolate yourself from the person and the situation that caused the offense, but make sure that's only a temporary way to find emotional peace, not a habit to disguise festering resentment. Realize that you don't have to resume your former relationship with the person as if nothing ever happened; and in fact, sometimes reconciliation doesn't work. But recognize that peace is always possible, and that reconciliation may work if the person is willing to pursue it.
- 13) When seeking reconciliation with someone, let him or her know of your love, emphasize the positive aspects of your relationship, discuss the offense specifically and honestly, listen to what the person has to say and consider it, challenge the person to change and commit yourself to change and be patient.
- 14) Pray for the people who have hurt you-whether you're reconciled to them or not-and ask God to give you the grace to interact gracefully with them when you encounter them.

Closing Prayers (choose one)

*Oh Father, please accept all that we have shared together here, and all that remains in our hearts not shared, and return to us your Love and healing Providence, return beauty for our ashes, make us whole and guide us in Your ways.
Amen.*

Prayer to St. Michael

*Saint Michael Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection Against the wickedness and snares of the devil.
May God rebuke him we humbly pray and do thou,
O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, Cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl through the world seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen.*

The Lord's Prayer

*Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be Thy name,
Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our trespasses
as we forgive those who trespass against us,
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
Amen.*
