OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST,

King of the Universe

So Pilate said to him, "Then you are a king?" Jesus answered, "You say I am a king." - Jn 18:37a

FROM THE PASTOR.....

Reflection on Christ the King

Some have come close to conquering much of the known world—Alexander, Genghis Khan, Augustus Caesar, and Adolf Hitler, to name a few. And some kingdoms have lasted a very long time, such as Rome which lingered on in the East for 2000 years. But despite all their machinations and self-glorifying monuments, the great rulers of the earth all proved mortal like anybody else. They had their day in the sun, only to disappear. Their kingdoms, too, ultimately passed away, leaving abundant ruins for generations of tourists and archeologists to explore. There is another thing that these great ones of the earth had in common—they jealously guarded their glory, sharing it with no one. Their ascent to the pinnacle of power was made over the backs of others, and they did not hesitate to eliminate any and all rivals. The feast of Christ the King celebrates the fact that there is one who is remarkably different. He came to serve all, even His enemies. He truly was a Son of Man, with a vulnerable human nature. But He was also truly Son of God. Not in some mythological sense, like the Pharaohs. Or the wishful thinking sense, like the Caesars. But really and truly, the Immortal, the Eternal, taking the form of a mortal man in a specific time in history. Rather than executing His opponents, He forgave them. Rather than dominating His subjects, He exalted them. He even called them not servants, but friends, and bestowing on them a share in His priesthood and kingship. Though He died, like other kings, it was for a different purpose than Augustus in his bed or Hitler in his bunker. He died willingly to save His people, and His death was not a result of a battle lost or a plan gone awry, but of a glorious victory planned before the world began.

CATHOLIC APOLOGETICS FELLOWSHIP & EVANGELIZATION (CAFÉ)

Tuesday, November 20th, Fr. Michael Niemczak will give a presentation on the history of Atheism and will address the many questions about this. This talk will take place in the room Santa Ana A&B, located on the top floor of the Student Union Building at the center of campus. The event will last from 6:30pm to about 8:30pm. Bring all your friends!

HOLY SOULS IN PURGATORY

During November we pray for all of the souls in Purgatory. According to tradition, St. Gertrude the Great was told by Our Lord that the following prayer, each time she piously recited it, would release 1,000 souls (or a vast number) from their suffering in purgatory:

“Eternal Father,
I offer You the most precious blood of thy Divine Son, Jesus, in union with the Masses said
throughout the world today,
for all the Holy Souls in Purgatory,
for sinners everywhere,
for sinners in the universal Church,
for those in my own home,
and in my family. Amen.”

DAILY CATHOLIC WISDOM

If you wish to convert anyone to the fullness of the knowledge of Our Lord and of His Mystical Body, then teach him the Rosary. One of two things will happen. Either he will stop saying the Rosary—or he will get the gift of faith.

—VENERABLE ARCHBISHOP FULTON
SHEEN

You must have great patience with yourself and not expect to get into a region of perfect peace where there would be no trials or worries or fighting against self—even the saints did not enjoy that calm.

—FR. WILLIE DOYLE, S.J.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

Monday - Friday we have Eucharistic Adoration from 12:00 1:00pm. Please consider coming and spending an hour with Jesus. You will be truly blessed!
