FROM THE PASTOR.....

There are several important things to note about the visit of the Wise Men, the Magi to Jesus the Christ Child. They are Gentiles, not Jews. From the very beginning of his life, Jesus is clearly not just the Jewish Messiah who has come to deliver the people of Israel from foreign oppression. No, he is the universal king, the ruler of all, who has come to bless all of the people of the earth but also who has come to bring unity to all nations with himself being the force that ties all of us together. If you've ever wondered what the word "Catholic" means, here we have it. It comes from a couple of Greek words meaning "according to the whole," or "universal". it means that Jesus did not come to establish some local religious sect for a select few, one "cult" among many. No, the Church he founded is "catholic" or universal, spread over the whole world, welcoming the whole human race into one nation, one family, under one King. Something else is to be noted about these very famous visitors. As Gentiles, they are pagans. In fact the term "Magi" is clearly linked to the word "magic." It was not in the Bible that they normally looked for wisdom (otherwise they would have known to have gone straight to Bethlehem). But in reward for their great efforts in seeking the truth, though perhaps it was a bit misguided at first, God led them to Christ anyhow, in His great mercy. So this is why we never give up on any of our family, friends, or others in our lives. Though so many might be living in a more "pagan" way, as long as they are able and willing to seek the truth, through our example and through the efforts of the Holy Spirit, may they too come to know that our Lord Jesus has come to all of us to set us free.

DAILY CATHOLIC WISDOM

The words that the priest pronounces at consecration are greater than the very words that God spoke when he brought creation into being because those words only brought creatures into being. But when the priest speaks the words of consecration, he brings forth our Creator and our Redeemer. We should bow our heads and hearts and our bodies and souls low in profound awe and adoration.
